Amended 2004 Executive Incentive Plan

On November 2, 2006, the stockholders of Lam Research Corporation (the Company) approved an amendment (the Amendment) of the Company's 2004 Executive Incentive Plan (the Executive Incentive Plan) at the Company's annual meeting. The Amendment increases the limit on the aggregate amount of cash awards paid under the Executive Incentive Plan to any one participant in respect of specified performance goals for any twelve-month measurement period from $2,000,000 to $12,000,000 (such limit subject to proportionate adjustment in the event of a performance period that is shorter or longer than one year). The Amendment is effective for measurement periods beginning on or after November 3, 2006.

2007 Stock Incentive Plan

On November 2, 2006, the stockholders of the Company approved the Lam Research Corporation 2007 Stock Incentive Plan (the 2007 Stock Plan) at the Company's annual meeting. Under the 2007 Stock Plan, 15,000,000 shares of common stock will be reserved for issuance. As a result of the approval of the 2007 Stock Plan by the stockholders, the Company will cease granting awards under its 1999 Stock Option Plan and 1997 Stock Incentive Plan.

The types of awards that may be granted under the 2007 Stock Plan are stock options (including incentive stock options and nonstatutory stock options), stock appreciation rights, and stock awards, including restricted stock, deferred stock, restricted stock units, performance shares, phantom stock and similar types of awards. Employees, consultants, members of Lam's board of directors and Lam's executive officers are eligible to receive awards under the 2007 Stock Plan.

During the pendency of the 2006 proxy solicitation, two institutional stockholders requested changes to the 2007 Stock Plan. Stockholder approval of the Plan was obtained without regard to how the votes of such stockholders were cast. Nevertheless because the Board is willing to consider stockholder inputs when they are reasonable and consistent with the Company's business objectives, following the 2006 annual meeting, on November 2, 2006, the Board amended the 2007 Stock Plan to (i) require independent director approval (by a committee of independent directors or by a majority of the independent members of the board) of all award grants made to non-employee directors under the 2007 Stock Plan, (ii) establish that such grants shall be made with the objective that non-employee director compensation taken as a whole shall not exceed the 75th percentile of comparable companies, and (iii) limit the number of shares for which vesting restrictions may be waived for reasons other than death, disability, retirement, a change of control or other exigent circumstances to 5% of the total number of shares reserved under the 2007 Stock Plan. A copy of the amended 2007 Stock Plan is attached as Exhibit 4.2.

Non-Employee Director Compensation

On November 2, 2006, the independent members of the Company's board of directors changed the annual retainer amounts paid to non-employee directors. The annual retainer was set at $42,000 with an additional $2,000 annual payment to board committee chairpersons and the lead independent director.
