FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 2002

NORTHFIELD LABORATORIES URGES SHAREHOLDERS TO REVIEW PROXY
MATERIALS AND RETURN BLUE PROXY CARDS IMMEDIATELY

EVANSTON, ILLINOIS, AUGUST 9, 2002 - NORTHFIELD LABORATORIES, INC. (NASDAQ/NMS: NFLD), announced today that it has begun mailing proxy materials to shareholders for its September 13, 2002 annual meeting. Shareholders will receive a letter from Steven A. Gould, M.D., Northfield's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, updating them on the status of the Company and its PolyHeme(TM) blood substitute product, together with Northfield's 2002 annual report and proxy statement.

Shareholders will also be receiving a letter from Dr. Gould inviting them to the annual meeting and urging them to complete and return their BLUE proxy cards to the Company immediately. The following is the text of Dr. Gould's letter:

Edgar Filing: NORTHFIELD LABORATORIES INC /DE/ - Form DEFA14A

As the new Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Northfield Laboratories, and on behalf of the entire Northfield Board, I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, at which we will report on the Company's progress and discuss with you its prospects for the future. We look forward to seeing you there. However, to ensure that your shares are represented, we ask that you sign, date and return the enclosed BLUE proxy today, whether or not you plan to attend the meeting on September 13th.

Your Board and management have a singular focus: to advance Northfield Laboratories and its breakthrough product, PolyHeme(TM), towards clinical, commercial and market success. It is important to note that:

- o Our dialogue with the FDA continues to be constructive. We are convinced that its concerns can be addressed and that a successful conclusion to the regulatory process is achievable.

ADD 1

- o We continue to actively pursue partnering opportunities with world-class pharmaceutical companies to fully exploit PolyHeme's potential to both save human life and deliver the return on investment that Northfield shareholders deserve.
- o We are actively exploring avenues of opportunity for additional funding.
- o We are aggressively working to build Northfield's recognition in both the scientific and investment communities.

Obviously these initiatives are interdependent. The uncertain economic times and market unrest have increased the challenges we face in achieving these goals. It is therefore unfortunate that a self-styled activist, C. Robert Coates, has chosen to subject your company to the unnecessary distraction and expense of a proxy contest at this year's annual meeting.

Mr. Coates is no stranger to proxy contests. He has repeatedly threatened Northfield in the past. Earlier this year, Coates and yet another hand-picked nominee were soundly rejected by the shareholders of Netro Corporation. Several years ago, after settling for one seat on the Board of Borland Software Corporation (formerly known as Inprise Corporation), he quit after only nine months on the job.

Now, Coates is seeking to elect himself and his crony, Bert R. Williams III, to your Board of Directors. You should be aware that the nominating committee of the Board, which is composed entirely of independent directors, met individually with Mr. Coates by phone and unanimously determined that candidates with significantly better qualifications were available.

MAKE NO MISTAKE: NORTHFIELD SHAREHOLDERS' INTERESTS ARE BETTER
SERVED WITHOUT C. ROBERT COATES ON THE BOARD

You may expect to receive calls and letters from Mr. Coates and his paid agents seeking support for his "slate." He may even claim some responsibility for recent developments at Northfield. NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH. Mr. Coates has an apparent penchant for recognizing the obvious and adopting it as his own. Don't be misled. We believe that the presence of C. Robert Coates et. al. on the Northfield Board would be disruptive at best and would contribute nothing to the long-term value of your Northfield shares.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND NEW MANAGEMENT TEAM ARE COMMITTED TO PROTECTING AND ENHANCING THE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENT IN NORTHFIELD BY ENSURING THAT POLYHEME IS BROUGHT TO MARKET AS QUICKLY AND PROFITABLY AS POSSIBLE. DON'T JEOPARDIZE THE FUTURE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENT BY ALLOWING MR. COATES TO DISRUPT THIS PROCESS. I URGE YOU TO PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD TODAY.

Thank you for your continued support.
