Employment Continuation Agreements

On April 20, 2009, Michael Baker Corporation (the Company) entered into employment continuation agreements with its senior executive officers, including the following named executive officers: Bradley L. Mallory, H. James McKnight and Edward L. Wiley.

Under each employment continuation agreement (each referred to as the Agreement), if the executive is employed on the date on which a change of control, as defined in the Agreement, occurs then the executive will be entitled to remain employed by the Company until the twenty-four month anniversary of the change of control, subject to the termination provisions described below. During such employment period, the executive's position will be at least commensurate with that held immediately prior to the change of control and the executive's services will be performed at the location where the executive was employed immediately before the change of control or at a different location within a specified distance from such location. During the employment period, the executive will (a) receive a base salary at a monthly rate at least equal to the monthly salary paid to the executive immediately prior to the change of control, (b) be afforded the opportunity to receive a bonus (i) on terms and conditions no less favorable to the executive than the annual bonus opportunity made available to the executive for the fiscal year ended immediately prior to the change of control and (ii) in an amount not less than the average bonus earned by executive during the three fiscal year period immediately prior to the change of control, (c) participate in all long-term incentive compensation programs for key executives and benefit plans at a level that is commensurate with the executive's opportunity to participate in such plans immediately prior to the change of control, or if more favorable, at the level made available to the executive or other similarly situated officers at any time thereafter, (d) receive vacation and fringe benefits, expense reimbursement and office and support staff at a level that is commensurate with the executive's benefits immediately prior to the change of control, or if more favorable, at the level made available to the executive or other similarly situated officers at any time thereafter, and (e) be indemnified, during and after his employment period, for claims arising from or out of the executive's performance as an officer, director or employee of the Company to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents. The Company is also required to maintain existing or comparable insurance policies covering such matters at a level of protection that is no less than that afforded under the Company's governing documents in effect immediately prior to the change of control.

If an executive's employment is terminated after a change of control due to death or disability, as defined in the Agreement, the executive will receive only the executive's base salary through the date of termination, any vested amounts or benefits under the Company's benefit plans, including accrued but unpaid vacation, and any benefits payable for death or disability under applicable plans or policies. If, after a change of control, an executive's employment is terminated by the Company for cause, as defined in the Agreement, or the executive voluntarily terminates his or her employment other than for good reason, as defined in the Agreement, the executive will receive only the executive's base salary through the date of termination and any vested amounts or benefits under the Company's benefit plans, including accrued but unpaid vacation. If, after a change of control, an executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for cause or the executive terminates his or her employment for good reason the executive will receive (a) the executive's base salary through the date of termination, (b) a cash amount equal to two times the sum of the executive's annual base salary and the average of the bonuses payable to the executive for the Company's three fiscal years ending immediately prior to the change of control, subject to reduction as provided in the Agreement, including for any further salary payable to executive for periods following termination of employment, and any severance benefit or separation pay otherwise payable to the executive under any Company benefit plan, policy, agreement or otherwise, and (c) any vested benefits under the Company's benefit plans, including accrued but unpaid vacation. The executive will also be entitled to continue participation in all of the Company's employee and executive welfare and fringe plans until the earlier of the twenty-four month anniversary of the termination date or the date the executive becomes eligible for comparable benefits under a similar plan, policy or program of a subsequent employer. The amounts described are subject to further reduction as may be necessary to avoid characterization of amounts as "excess parachute payments" under the Internal Revenue Code.

The Company will also pay the executive's costs incurred in enforcing the Agreement if the executive is the prevailing party in a dispute. The Agreement also contains requirements and restrictions applicable to the executive's disclosure of Company confidential information and return of Company property following a termination of employment. A copy of the form of Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 10.1.
