GENERAL INFORMATION

The Company has an Incentive Stock Option Plan, a Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan and a Stock Bonus Plan. In some cases the plans described above are collectively referred to as the "Plans". The terms and conditions of any stock bonus and the terms and conditions of any options, including the price of the shares of Common Stock issuable on the exercise of options, are governed by the provisions of the respective Plans and the stock bonus or stock option agreements between the Company and the Plan participants.

A summary of the Company's Plans follows.

Incentive Stock Option Plan. The Company has an Incentive Stock Option Plan which authorizes the issuance of its common stock to persons that exercise options granted pursuant to the plan. Only Company employees may be granted options pursuant to the Incentive Stock Option Plan.

Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan. The Company's Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan authorizes the issuance of shares of the Company's Common Stock to persons that exercise options granted pursuant to the Plan. The Company's employees, directors, officers, consultants and advisors are eligible to be granted options pursuant to the Plan, provided however that bona fide services must be rendered by such consultants or advisors and such services must not be in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction. The option exercise price is determined by the Board of Directors.

Stock Bonus Plan. The Company has a Stock Bonus Plan which allows for the issuance of shares of Common Stock. Such shares may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized but unissued shares, or treasury shares. Under the Stock Bonus Plan, the Company's employees, directors, officers, consultants and advisors are eligible to receive a grant of the Company's shares, provided however that bona fide services must be rendered by consultants or advisors and such services must not be in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction.

Summary.

The following sets forth certain information as of March 31, 2011 concerning the stock options and stock bonuses granted by the Company pursuant to the Plans. Each option represents the right to purchase one share of the Company's common stock.

Name of Plan	Total Shares Reserved Under Plans	Options Granted	Options Exercised	Shares Issued As Stock Bonus	Remaining Options/ Shares Under Plans
Incentive Stock Option Plan	500,000	--	--	N/A	500,000
Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan	1,000,000	--	--	N/A	100,000
Stock Bonus Plan	900,000	N/A	N/A	--	900,000

As of February 28, 2011 the Company had not issued any shares pursuant to the Stock Bonus plan and no options have been granted pursuant to the Incentive Stock Option Plan or the Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan.

INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION PLAN

Securities to be Offered and Persons Who May Participate in the Plan

All employees of the Company are eligible to be granted options pursuant to the Plan as may be determined by the Company's Board of Directors which administers the Plan.

Options granted pursuant to the Plan terminate at such time as may be specified when the option is granted.

The total fair market value of the shares of Common Stock (determined at the time of the grant of the option) for which any employee may be granted options which are first exercisable in any calendar year may not exceed $100,000.

In the discretion of the Board of Directors, options granted pursuant to the Plans may include installment exercise terms for any option such that the option becomes fully exercisable in a series of cumulating portions. The Board of Directors may also accelerate the date upon which any option (or any part of any option) is first exercisable. However, no option, or any portion thereof may be exercisable until one year following the date of grant. In no event shall an option granted to an employee then owning more than 10% of the Common Stock of the Company be exercisable by its terms after the expiration of five years from the date of grant, nor shall any other option granted pursuant to the Plans be exercisable by its terms after the expiration of ten years from the date of grant. Purchase of Securities Pursuant to the Plans

The purchase price per share of common stock purchasable under an option is determined by the Board of Directors but cannot be less than the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the grant of the option (or 110% of the fair market value in the case of a person owning more than 10% of the Company's outstanding shares). An option may be exercised, in whole or in part, at any time, or in part, from time to time, during the option period, by giving written notice of exercise to the Board of Directors at the Company's offices specifying the number of shares to be purchased, such notice to be accompanied by payment in full of the purchase price either by a payment of cash, bank draft or money order payable to the Company. At the discretion of the Board of Directors payment of the purchase price for shares of Common Stock underlying options may be paid through the delivery of shares of the Company's Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value equal to the option price, provided such shares have been owned by the option holder for at least one year prior to such exercise. A combination of cash and shares of Common Stock may also be permitted at the discretion of the Board of Directors. No shares shall be issued until full payment has been made. An optionee shall have the rights of a stockholder only with respect to shares of stock for which certificates have been issued. Under no circumstances may an option be exercised after the expiration of the option.

Tax Aspects of Incentive Stock Options Granted Under the Plans

Options granted under the Plans will be incentive stock options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and will be subject to the provisions of the Code. Generally, if Common Stock of the Company is issued to an employee pursuant to an option granted as described below, and if no disqualifying disposition of such shares is made by such employee within one year after the transfer of such shares to him or within two years after the date of grant: (a) no income will be realized by the employee at the time of the grant of the option; (b) no income will be realized by the employee at the date of exercise; (c) when the employee sells such shares, any amount realized in excess of the option price will be taxed as a long-term capital gain and any loss sustained will be a long-term capital loss; and (d) no deduction will be allowed to the Company for federal income tax purposes. Generally, if any disqualifying disposition of such shares is made by an employee within one year after the transfer of such shares to him, or within two years after the date of grant, the difference between the amount paid for the shares upon exercise of the option and the fair market value of the shares on the date the option was exercised will be taxed as ordinary income in the year the disqualifying disposition occurs and the Company will be allowed a deduction for such amount. However, if such disqualifying disposition is a sale or exchange for which a loss would have been recognized (if sustained), the amount taxed to the employee as ordinary income (and deductible by the Company) will be limited to the excess of the amount realized upon such sale or exchange over the amount paid for the shares where such excess is less than the amount referred to in the preceding sentence. This limitation does not apply to a disposition of the type as to which losses (if sustained) are not recognized as deductible losses for income tax purposes, e.g., a gift, a sale to certain related persons or a so-called "wash" sale (a sale within 30 days before or after the acquisition of the Company's shares or the receipt of an option or the entering into a contract to buy the Company's shares). If the shares are sold in a disqualifying disposition during such one-year period and the amount realized is in excess of the fair market value of the shares at the time of exercise, such excess will be taxed as a long-term or short-term capital gain depending upon the holding period.

An employee who exercises an incentive stock option may be subject to the alternative minimum tax since the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the stock on the date of exercise is an item of tax preference. However, no item of preference

NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION PLAN

Securities to be Offered and Persons Who May Participate in the Plan

The Company's employees, directors and officers, and consultants or advisors to the Company are eligible to be granted options pursuant to the Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan as may be determined by the Company's Board of Directors that administers the Plan, provided however that bona fide services must be rendered by such consultants or advisors and such services must not be in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction.

Options granted pursuant to the Plan not previously exercised will terminate at such other time as may be specified when the option is granted.

In the discretion of the Board of Directors options granted pursuant to the Plan may include installment exercise terms for any option such that the option becomes fully exercisable in a series of cumulating portions. The Board of Directors may also accelerate the date upon which any option (or any part of any option) is first exercisable. In no event shall an option be exercisable by its terms after the expiration of ten years from the date of grant.

Purchase of Securities Pursuant to the Plan

The purchase price per share of common stock purchasable under an option is determined by the Company's Board of Directors. An option may be exercised, in whole or in part, at any time, or in part, from time to time, during the option period, by giving written notice of exercise to the Board of Directors at the Company specifying the number of shares to be purchased, such notice to be accompanied by payment in full of the purchase price either by a payment of cash, bank draft or money order payable to the Company. At the discretion of the Board of Directors payment of the purchase price for shares of Common Stock underlying options may be paid through the delivery of shares of the Company's Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value equal to the option price, provided such shares have been owned by the option holder for at least one year prior to such exercise. A combination of cash and shares of Common Stock may also be used at the discretion of the Board of Directors. No shares shall be issued until full payment has been made. An optionee shall have the rights of a stockholder only with respect to shares of stock for which certificates have been issued. Under no circumstances may an option be exercised after the expiration of the option.

Tax Aspects of Options Granted Under the Plan

The difference between the option price and the market value of the shares on the date the option is exercised is taxable as ordinary income to an Optionee at the time of exercise and to the extent such difference does not constitute unreasonable compensation is deductible by the Company at that time. Gain or loss on any subsequent sale of shares received through the exercise of an option will be treated as capital gain or loss.

Since the amount of income realized by an Optionee on the exercise of an option under the Plans represents compensation for services provided to the Company, the Company may be required to withhold income taxes from the Optionee's income even though the compensation is not paid in cash. To withhold the appropriate tax on the transfer of the shares, the Company will (i) reduce the number of shares issued or distributed to reflect the necessary withholding,

Edgar Filing: DNA BRANDS INC - Form S-8

(ii) withhold the appropriate tax from other compensation due to the Optionee, or (iii) condition the transfer of any shares to the Optionee on the payment to the Company of an amount equal to the taxes required to be withheld.

STOCK BONUS PLAN

Securities to be Offered and Persons Who May Participate in the Plan

Under the Stock Bonus Plan, the Company's employees, directors and officers, and consultants or advisors to the Company will be eligible to receive a grant of the Company's shares, provided however that bona fide services must be rendered by such consultants or advisors and such services must not be in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction. The aggregate number of shares which may be granted may not exceed the amount available in the Bonus Share Reserve. The grant of the Company's shares rests entirely with the Company's Board of Directors administering the Plan. It is also left to the Board of Directors to decide the type of vesting and transfer restrictions which will be placed on the shares.

Tax Aspects of Shares Granted Pursuant to the Plan

Any shares of stock transferred to any person pursuant to the Stock Bonus Plan will be subject to the provisions of Section 83 of the Internal Revenue Code. Consequently, if (and so long as) the shares received remain substantially nonvested, the recipient of the shares will not have to include the value of these shares in gross income. The shares will remain substantially nonvested so long as they are subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture and are nontransferable. A substantial risk of forfeiture exists if a person's rights in the shares are conditioned upon the future performance of substantial services. Nontransferability will exist if a person is restricted from selling, assigning or pledging these shares, and, if transfer is permitted, a transferee is required to take the shares subject to the substantial risk of forfeiture. However, in the year such shares become either transferable or not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture, the recipient of the shares will be required to include in gross income for that taxable year the excess of the share's fair market value at the time they became vested over the amount (if any) paid for such shares. This amount will be taxable as ordinary compensation income.

There is available an election through which a person can choose to recognize as ordinary income in the year of transfer the excess of the share's fair market value at the time of transfer over the amount (if any) the person paid for such shares. By making this election any future appreciation (depreciation) in value will be treated as appreciation (depreciation) attributable to a capital asset rather than as compensation income. An election to be valid must be made within thirty (30) days of the date on which the shares are issued by the Company.

The Company does not recognize income when granting or transferring shares to the recipient of the shares pursuant to the Plans. Furthermore, Section 83 permits the Company to take an ordinary business deduction equal to the amount includable by the recipient of the shares in the year the recipient recognizes the value of the shares as income.

OTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THE PLANS

All shares to be issued pursuant to the Plans will, prior to the time of issuance, constitute authorized but unissued shares or treasury shares.

Edgar Filing: DNA BRANDS INC - Form S-8

The terms and conditions upon which a person will be permitted to assign or hypothecate options or shares received pursuant to any of the Plans will be determined by the Company's Board of Directors that administers the Plans. In general, however, options are non-transferable except upon death of the option holder. Shares issued pursuant to the Stock Bonus Plan will generally not be transferable until the person receiving the shares satisfies any vesting requirements imposed by the Board of Directors when the shares were issued.

Any shares issued pursuant to the Stock Bonus Plan and any options granted pursuant to the stock option Plans will be forfeited if the "vesting" schedule established by the Board of Directors at the time of the grant is not met. For this purpose, vesting means the period during which the employee must remain an employee of the Company or the period of time a non-employee must provide services to the Company.

Each Option shall be exercisable from time to time during a period (or periods) determined by the Company's Board of Directors and ending upon the expiration or termination of the Option; provided, however, the Board of Directors may, limit the number of shares purchaseable in any period or periods of time during which the Option is exercisable.

Employment by the Company does not include a right to receive bonus shares or options pursuant to the Plans. Only the Board of Directors has the authority to determine which persons shall be issued bonus shares or granted options and, subject to the limitations described elsewhere in this Prospectus and in the Plans, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable as bonus shares or upon the exercise of any options.

The Plans are not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, nor are they subject to any provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

The description of the federal income tax consequences as set forth in this Prospectus is intended merely as an aid for such persons eligible to participate in the Plans, and the Company assumes no responsibility in connection with the income tax liability of any person receiving shares or options pursuant to the Plans. Persons receiving shares or options pursuant to the Plans are urged to obtain competent professional advice regarding the applicability of federal, state and local tax laws.

As of the date of this Prospectus, and except with respect to shares or options which have not yet vested, no terms of any Plan or any contract in connection therewith creates in any person a lien on any of the securities issuable by the Company pursuant to the Plans.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE PLANS

The Plans are administered by a Company's Board of Directors. The Company's Directors serve for a one-year tenure and until their successors are elected. The Company's Directors are elected each year at the annual shareholder's meeting. A Director may be removed at any time by the vote of a majority of the Company's shareholders represented in person or by proxy at any special meeting called for the purpose of removing one or more directors. Any vacancies which may occur on the Board of Directors will be filled by the majority vote of the remaining directors. The Board of Directors is vested with the authority to interpret the provisions of the Plans and supervise the administration of the Plans. In addition, the Board of Directors is empowered to select eligible employees of the Company to whom shares or options are to be granted, to determine the number of shares subject to each grant of a stock bonus or an option and to determine when, and upon what conditions, shares or options granted under the Plans will vest or otherwise be subject to forfeiture and cancellation.

RESALE OF SHARES BY AFFILIATES

Shares of common stock acquired pursuant to the Plans may be resold freely, except that any person deemed to be an "affiliate" of the Company, within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, may not sell shares acquired by virtue of the Plans unless such shares are sold by means of a special Prospectus, are otherwise registered by the Company under the Securities Act for resale by such person or an exemption from registration under the Act is available. Rule 144, promulgated under the Act, which contains limitations on the manner of sale and the amount of shares that may be sold, provides an exemption from registration under the Act. An employee who is not an officer or director of the Company generally would not be deemed an "affiliate" of the Company.

In addition, the acquisition of shares or options by officers and directors may be considered a "purchase" and the sale thereof will generally be considered a "sale" for purposes of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF PLANS

The Board of Directors of the Company may at any time, and from time to time, amend, terminate, or suspend one or more of the Plans in any manner they deem appropriate, provided that such amendment, termination or suspension shall not adversely affect rights or obligations with respect to shares or options previously granted.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

The common stock issued as a stock bonus and the common stock issuable upon the exercise of any options granted pursuant to the Plans entitles holders to receive such dividends, if any, as the Board of Directors declares from time to time; to cast one vote per share on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders; and to share ratably in all assets remaining after the payment of liabilities in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company. The shares carry no preemptive rights. All shares offered under the Plans will, upon issuance by the Company (and against receipt of the purchase price in the case of options), be fully paid and non-assessable.
