Item 8.01 - Other Events

On December 28, 2004, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (Utility), PG&E Corporation's subsidiary, received a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that fulfills one of the remaining conditions to be met before energy recovery bonds (ERBs) can be issued to refinance the regulatory asset established under the settlement agreement entered into on December 19, 2003 by PG&E Corporation, the Utility, and the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to resolve the Utility's Chapter 11 proceeding (Settlement Agreement). As previously disclosed, on November 19, 2004, the CPUC approved the Utility's application for a wholly owned subsidiary to issue ERBs to refinance the remaining unamortized balance of the regulatory asset and related federal income and state franchise taxes, in an aggregate principal amount of up to $3.0 billion in two separate tranches up to one year apart, to be secured by a dedicated rate component. (The CPUC was empowered to impose this dedicated rate component and to approve the ERB financing structure in June 2004 when California Senate Bill 772 became law.) As provided under the Settlement Agreement and the CPUC decision approving the Settlement Agreement, the final condition to be met before ERBs can be issued is that the refinancing will not adversely affect the Utility's issuer and other debt credit ratings. In addition, the CPUC's November 19, 2004 authorization decision requires that a financing team comprised of CPUC staff and their outside advisors approve the terms of the ERB transaction. If the remaining conditions are met, it is expected that ERBs in the approximate amount of $1.9 billion will be issued in January 2005. Whether the ERBs are issued and the actual date of issuance will depend on if and when: (1) the condition that the refinancing will not adversely affect the Utility's issuer and debt credit ratings is met, (2) the CPUC's financing team approves the transaction terms, and (3) the registration statement previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) relating to the offer and sale of the ERBs is declared effective by the SEC.
