ITEM 5. Other Events

The Registrant has undergone the following significant events:

- (a) The Company vacated its leased facilities as of December 1, 2002, and moved to Unit 17, 3400 Losch, Longueuil (St-Hubert Borough), QUEBEC, Canada J3Y 5T6. The former landlord had obtained an order of possession and a judgment for rent arrears, which as of this date the landlord has not pursued.
- (b) The Company terminated its efforts to renew the lease or purchase of certain equipment comprising part of the TCS-1 prototype and that equipment was returned to the Lessor.
- (c) On December 18, 2002, The Tirex Corporation entered into a License Agreement with Simpro S.p.A. ("Simpro") of Turin, Italy, granting to Simpro the exclusive right to manufacture all units sold by the Company worldwide, and non-exclusive marketing rights. The term of the license is five (5) years with a right to extend for successive three (3) year periods throughout the life of the Patent, but is subject to certain conditions, including that the cost of the manufacturing plant must be mutually agreed upon.

Simpro simultaneously entered into a Sales Agreement with Global Recycling, Inc., ("Global") of Luquillo, Puerto Rico for the sale of a TCS-2 unit, an improved version of the TCS-1 prototype with an expanded capacity and a higher cost. This Agreement is subject to various conditions, one of which is that Global will obtain a required equity infusion of approximately one million five hundred dollars ($1,500,000) of a total financing plan of nine million dollars ($9,000,000).

As a result of this transaction, the Company anticipates beginning to receive royalties in the first or second quarter of 2003. There
