Item 1.03 Bankruptcy of Subsidiary Century Media, Inc.

On July 10, 2005, at a duly held and noticed board of director's meeting, it was decided that the Registrant would cause the filing of the Chapter 7 proceeding for Century Media, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant. As a result of this filing, a majority of the debt will be eliminated in the upcoming audit. The Company's management drew no opposition at the meeting of creditors held at the Office of The United States Trustee on August 15, 2005. All known creditors had received a copy of the Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition. Now that the Chapter 7 hearing has been held, Company counsel has been directed to prepare a statutory dissolution of the subsidiary corporation under California law. Additionally, the Company can now proceed with its business plan as noted in previous filings and is now in a stronger position to enter into negotiations with potential merger and acquisition candidates having eliminated in excess of $11,000,000 in debt from its balance sheet.

Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated March 4, 2002, effective March 22, 2002, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of Century Media, Inc., a California corporation ("Century") by acquisition.

Edgar Filing: INNOVATION HOLDINGS - Form 8-K

Pursuant to the transaction, the Company acquired all of the capital stock of Century for cash and common stock of the Company, assumed current debt obligations and unexercised option and stock appreciation rights of Century and assumed accrued and ongoing trade and other ordinary course obligations and relationships. Prior to the closing, the parties negotiated with the holders of portions of the outstanding Century debt to restructure the term and payments of such debt and in certain cases, to allow for the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company in lieu of cash payments. At the time of the filing of bankruptcy, the Century Media, Inc. remained obligated on significant certain obligations in excess of $11,000,000 dollars.
