Forward Looking Statements

This presentation includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements are commonly identified by such terms and phrases as would, may, will, expects or expected to and other terms with similar meaning indicating possible future events or actions or potential impact on the businesses or shareholders of Adolph Coors Company and Molson Inc. (separately and together the Companies). Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the anticipated benefits, savings and synergies of the merger between Adolph Coors Company and Molson, Inc., including future financial and operating results, Coors and Molson's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, the markets for Coors and Molson's products, the future development of Coors and Molson's business, and the contingencies and uncertainties to which Coors and Molson may be subject and other statements that are not historical facts. The presentation also includes information that has not been reviewed by the Companies' independent auditors. There is no assurance the transaction contemplated in this presentation will be completed at all, or completed upon the same terms and conditions described. All forward-looking statements in this presentation are expressly qualified by information contained in each company's filings with regulatory authorities. The Companies do not undertake to publicly update forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain required approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of Coors and Molson stockholders to approve the merger; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; and disruption from the merger making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers. Additional factors that could cause Coors and Molson's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in the periodic reports filed by Coors with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). Neither Coors nor Molson undertakes and each specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

Stockholders are urged to read the joint proxy statement/management information circular regarding the proposed transaction when it becomes available, because it will contain important information. Stockholders will be able to obtain a free copy of the joint proxy statement/management information circular, as well as other filings containing information about Coors, without charge, at the Securities and Exchange Commission's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). Copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission that will be incorporated by reference in the joint proxy statement/management information circular can also be obtained, without charge, by directing a request to Adolph Coors Company, 311 10th Street, Golden, Colorado 80401, Attention: Investor Relations, (303) 279-6565. The respective directors and executive officers of Coors and Molson and other persons may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed merger. Information regarding Coors's directors and executive officers is available in the 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Coors on March 12, 2004, and information regarding Molson's directors and executive officers will be included in the joint proxy statement/management information circular. Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained the joint proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission when they become available.

Coors Growth Model

Leverage strength in high-share markets to grow more strong markets

U.S. 1st: distribution, 2nd: invest with distributors (50/205)

Drivers: YAM, Hispanic programming, trial channels

U.K. Scotland, SE/London, Carling X-Cold, Coors Fine Light

International:

Mexico: Export with FEMSA sales/distribution

China: largest global beer market (volume), 20 cities (no breweries)

Japan: Zima (Coors sales force)

Reduce costs to reinvest against the front-end, grow returns on capital

Coors Performance Overview: 2003

Improvements made in key areas of the business

Continued investments in future growth

Generated cash and exceeded debt repayment goals

Strengthened financial position; strengthened and grew returns on capital

In the most recent fiscal year, Coors emerged a stronger company in a very tough year.

Coors Americas Segment: Coors Brewing Company

Continued strong U.S. pricing environment

Share maintained in a flat, highly competitive beer market

Refined marketing strategy gaining traction with key demographic groups

Sales organization strengthened and making progress in key markets (Hispanic) and channels (national accounts, convenience stores)

Proven track record in improving efficiency and reducing cost of U.S. operations (Goal: US$100mm in next 5 years)

Consistently able to generate cash, pay down debt

Canada: 7+% volume growth; 28% pretax income growth in 2003

Coors Europe Segment: Coors Brewers Limited

Carling #1 U.K. beer brand 30% larger than #2 brand

Significant improvements in balancing volume and margins

Achievements in productivity and cost reductions (new packaging lines in Burton, outsourcing of kegs and pub servicing)

Long-term market trends play to Coors strengths: growth in lagers, move toward off-premise/chains, where brand building is key

2003: Grew volume 7% and share 1.2 percentage points to 20.3%
