SECTION 2 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On February 23, 2015 American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings, Inc., (the "Company" or "AAM") issued a press release regarding AAM's financial results for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2014. A copy of this press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1.

SECTION 7 - REGULATION FD

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

AAM's 2015 Outlook:

- AAM is targeting full year sales of approximately $4 billion to $4.1 billion in 2015. This sales projection is based on the anticipated launch schedule of programs in AAM's new and incremental business backlog and the assumption that the U.S. Seasonally Adjusted Annual Rate of sales ("SAAR") is in the range of 16.5 million to 17.0 million light vehicle units for the full year 2015.
- AAM is targeting EBITDA in the range of $550 million to $575 million in 2015 (13.75% to 14.00% of sales).
- AAM is targeting free cash flow in the range of $175 million to $200 million in 2015.
- AAM is targeting full year capital spending of approximately 5% of sales in 2015.

AAM's key financial targets for 2015 - 2017:

- AAM is targeting annual sales to grow at a compounded annual growth rate in excess of 5% during the period from 2015 - 2017. This sales projection is based on the anticipated launch schedule of programs in AAM's new and incremental business backlog and the assumption that the U.S. Seasonally Adjusted Annual Rate of sales ("SAAR") averages approximately 17.0 million light vehicle units during the period from 2015 to 2017.
- AAM is targeting EBITDA margin in the range of 13% to 14% during the period from 2015 to 2017.
- AAM's target for the difference between EBITDA and capital spending during the period from 2015 to 2017 is in the range of 8% to 9% of sales.
- AAM is targeting free cash flow in the range of 4% to 5% of sales during the period from 2015 to 2017.
- AAM expects non-GM sales to range from 40% - 45% of total sales during the period from 2015 to 2017.

SECTION 8 - OTHER EVENTS

Item 8.01 Other Events:

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AXLE & MANUFACTURING HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K

On February 23, 2015, the Company filed a Form 8-K and an Amendment No. 1 on Form 10-Q/A to our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2014 (the “10-Q/A”), to make adjustments in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014. Except as described in the Explanatory Note to the 10-Q/A, the original filing is unchanged.

Cautionary Statements

In this earnings release and form 8-K, we make statements concerning our expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, goals, strategies, and future events or performance. Such statements are “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and relate to trends and events that may affect our future financial position and operating results. The terms such as “will,” “may,” “could,” “would,” “plan,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “project,” “target,” and similar words or expressions, as well as statements in future tense, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements should not be read as a guarantee of future performance or results, and will not necessarily be accurate indications of the times at, or by, which such performance or results will be achieved. Forward-looking statements are based on information available at the time those statements are made and/or management’s good faith belief as of that time with respect to future events and are subject to risks and may differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause such differences include, but are not limited to: reduced purchases of our products by General Motors Company (GM), FCA US LLC, formerly known as Chrysler Group LLC (Chrysler), or other customers; reduced demand for our customers' products (particularly light trucks and sport utility vehicles (SUVs) produced by GM and Chrysler); Our ability to develop and produce new products that reflect market demand; lower-than-anticipated market acceptance of new or existing products; our ability to attract new customers and programs for new products; our ability to respond to changes in technology, increased competition or pricing pressures; our ability to achieve the level of cost reductions required to sustain global cost competitiveness; supply shortages or price increases in raw materials, utilities or other operating supplies for us or our customers as a result of natural disasters or otherwise; our ability to successfully implement upgrades to our enterprise resource planning systems; global economic conditions; risks inherent in our international operations (including adverse changes in political stability, taxes and other law changes, potential disruptions of production and supply, and currency rate fluctuations); liabilities arising from warranty claims, product recall or field actions, product liability and legal proceedings to which we are or may become a party, or the impact of product recall or field actions on our customers; our ability to maintain satisfactory labor relations and avoid work stoppages; our suppliers', our customers' and their suppliers' ability to maintain satisfactory labor relations and avoid work stoppages; our ability or our customers' and suppliers' ability to successfully launch new product programs on a timely basis; our ability to realize the expected revenues from our new and incremental business backlog; negative or unexpected tax consequences; price volatility in, or reduced availability of, fuel; our ability to consummate and integrate acquisitions and joint ventures; our ability to attract and retain key associates; our ability to protect our intellectual property and successfully defend against assertions made against us; availability of financing for working capital, capital expenditures, research and development (R&D) or other general corporate purposes including acquisitions, as well as our ability to comply with financial covenants; our customers' and suppliers' availability of financing for working capital, capital expenditures, R&D or other general corporate purposes; changes in liabilities arising from pension and other postretirement benefit obligations; risks of noncompliance with environmental laws and regulations or risks of environmental issues that could result in unforeseen costs at our facilities; adverse changes in laws, government regulations or market conditions affecting our products or our customers' products (such as the Corporate Average Fuel Economy (CAFE) regulations); our ability or our customers' and suppliers' ability to comply with the Dodd-Frank Act and other regulatory requirements and the potential costs of such compliance; and other unanticipated events and conditions that may hinder our ability to compete. It is not possible to foresee or identify all such factors and we make no commitment to update any forward-looking statement or to disclose any facts, events or circumstances after the date hereof that may affect the accuracy of any forward-looking statement.
