Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 13, 2010, the Board of Directors of the registrant appointed Kevin P. Quirk to serve as the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Tad M. Ballantyne had been Interim-CEO and will remain as the Chairman of the Board. Following is a resume of Mr. Quirk:

An accomplished executive with more than two decades of consumer products operating experience spanning general management and senior marketing roles in Fortune 500 corporations and start-up ventures, Quirk is now responsible for determining Capsalus' strategic direction and managing performance against overall business objectives in keeping with the company's mission. Most recently, Quirk founded White Hat Brands LLC, a functional beverage manufacturer focused on children's health and wellness issues, which he sold to Capsalus earlier this year after raising multiple rounds of financing and stewarding the business to a successful exit. Prior to White Hat, he held a variety of senior-level marketing positions for The Coca-Cola Company, initially hired into the Coca-Cola Accelerated Program, the company's coveted management training program, and serving as director of marketing for Minute Maid brands prior to his departure. In addition, Quirk spent nearly a decade at Anheuser-Busch, where he worked in brand management, field sales and marketing, wholesaler development and strategic planning, most notably as market development manager of the Wisconsin territory and as founder of the company's business development group, providing internal management consulting to a network of over 800 distributors.

Mr. Quirk holds a BS in Marketing and a BA in Communications from Saint Louis University, and a letter of MBA equivalence from Harvard Business School earned while managing the New England market for Coca-Cola.
