NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (unaudited)

(in thousands, except share and per share data)

1. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Syratech Corporation and Subsidiaries (the Company) have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, certain information normally included in consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation. These interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's 2001 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

In the opinion of management, the interim condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments, which consist only of normal and recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the interim periods. The results of operations for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for the full year.

3. INVENTORIES

Edgar Filing: SYRATECH CORP - Form 10-Q

	March 31, 2002		December 31, 2001

4. INCOME TAXES

The benefit for income taxes for the three month period ended March 31, 2002 has been computed using the estimated effective full year tax rate of 25%. The tax rate used for the three month period ending March 31, 2001 was also 25%. Realization of the income tax benefit is dependent upon generating sufficient future taxable income. Although realization is not assured, management believes it is more likely than not that the income tax benefit will be realized through future taxable earnings.

5. REVOLVING LOAN FACILITIES AND NOTES PAYABLE

The Company has a Senior Revolving Credit Facility (the Facility) dated April 16, 1997 (amended effective as of July 31, 1997, December 31, 1997, March 30, 1998, December 31, 1998, March 26, 2001, August 13, 2001 and March 22, 2002) which provides for $110,000 of borrowings, including a $30,000 sub-limit for the issuance of standby and commercial letters of credit. On March 22, 2002, the term of the Facility was extended for an additional year and the facility now expires on April 15, 2003. The obligations of the Company under the Facility are secured by inventory and accounts receivable of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries, and by a pledge of 100% of the domestic subsidiaries and at least 65% of the foreign subsidiaries' outstanding capital stock. Borrowings made under the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest at a rate equal to, at the Company's option, the Eurodollar Rate plus 375 basis points or the Prime Rate plus 100 basis points. The Revolving Credit Facility, as amended, contains customary covenants of the Company and the subsidiary borrowers, including but not limited to requiring minimum earnings before income taxes, depreciation, amortization, and certain adjustments (EBITDA), as defined, and limits on capital spending. The Company must meet minimum availability requirements of $25,000 during February and March of each year and minimum availability varying between $13,300 and $10,000 for the months from April through January. The Company is in compliance with the covenants, as amended, as of March 31, 2002. At March 31, 2002, availability under the Revolving Credit Facility, net of outstanding letters of credit, was $39,954, resulting in additional borrowing capacity of $14,954 net of the $25,000 excess availability requirement noted above.

During January, 2002 the Company purchased $2,500 of its outstanding 11% Senior Notes on the open market, resulting in an extraordinary gain of $729, net of $507 in income taxes.

On April 30, 2002, the Company renewed its Wallace International de Puerto Rico, Inc. $1,000 credit facility. The renewed facility expires on March 15, 2003 and its terms require that the facility be paid down to zero for one 15 consecutive day period prior to that date. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at a rate equal to the Prime Rate plus 100 basis points. Availability under the facility was $266 at March 31, 2002.

On April 15, 2002 the Company's C. J. Vander Ltd. subsidiary renewed its £250 overdraft facility. The renewed facility expires on October 30, 2002. Borrowings made under the overdraft facility bear interest at the bank's base rate plus 1%. Availability under the overdraft facility was £250 at March 31, 2002.

7. GOODWILL

The Company adopted Financial Accounting Standard No. 142 - Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (SFAS 142) as required in fiscal 2002. As required under this Statement, the initial testing of goodwill for possible impairment will be completed within the first six months of 2002 and final testing, if possible impairment has been identified, by the end of the year. As of March 31, 2002, the Company had approximately $6,225 of goodwill recorded, which is primarily related to its acquisition of Rauch and Rochard in 1996. The Company is in the process of performing the initial impairment analysis as required by SFAS 142 and believes that the adoption of SFAS 142 may have an impact on its financial statements. The Company recorded approximately $341 of goodwill amortization in 2001. Under SFAS 142 goodwill is no longer being amortized. The Company does not have any specifically identified intangible assets other than goodwill for patents and trademarks.

These agreements provide for minimum annual salaries aggregating $2,540 and certain other benefits. The Company entered into an employment agreement with Robert Meers, effective as of March 11, 2002 as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company amended its employment agreement with Leonard Florence, providing for Mr. Florence's continued service to the Company in the capacity of Chairman of the Board for a period of three years. In April, 2002 the agreement with another officer was amended to extend the executive's term of full time employment an additional year until April 16, 2003.
