Forward Looking Statements

Forward Looking Statements - This report contains forward-looking statements and information that are based on management's current expectations as of the date of this document. When used in this report, the words "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "intend" and "expect" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that may cause the actual results to be materially different from those reflected in such forward-looking statements. These factors include, among others, changes in the terms of student loans and the educational credit marketplace arising from the implementation of applicable laws and regulations and from changes in these laws and regulations, which may reduce the volume, average term and costs of yields on student loans under the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) or result in loans being originated or refinanced under non-FFELP programs or may affect the terms upon which banks and others agree to sell FFELP loans to SLM Corporation, more commonly known as Sallie Mae, and its subsidiaries (collectively, "the Company"). In addition, a larger than expected increase in third party consolidations of our FFELP loans could materially adversely affect our results of operations. The Company could also be affected by changes in the demand for educational financing or in financing preferences of lenders, educational institutions, students and their families; incorrect estimates or assumptions by management in connection with the preparation of our consolidated financial statements; changes in the composition of our Managed FFELP and Private Education Loan portfolios; a significant decrease in our common stock price, which may result in counterparties terminating equity forward positions with us, which, in turn, could have a materially dilutive effect on our common stock; changes in the general interest rate environment and in the securitization markets for education loans, which may increase the costs or limit the availability of financings necessary to initiate, purchase or carry education loans; losses from loan defaults; changes in prepayment rates and credit spreads; and changes in the demand for debt management services and new laws or changes in existing laws that govern debt management services.

Disclosures

Non-GAAP Financial Measures The following presentation includes non-GAAP performance measures. A presentation of the most comparable GAAP financial measures and a reconciliation of the non-GAAP performance measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures are included in the our most recent quarterly earnings release, quarterly earnings report on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K, which are available on our website at (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo/earningsinfo>) and (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo/secfilings>) and on the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>).

U.S. Government Guaranteed Student Loans The following presentation contains references to U.S. Government guaranteed student loans. All such references are to loans made in compliance with the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP), under Title IV of the Higher Education Act, to finance educational costs. As more fully described in our most recent quarterly earnings release, quarterly earnings report on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K, available on our website at (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo/earningsinfo>) and (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo>) and on the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>), the federal guarantee of FFELP loans is conditioned on loans being originated, disbursed and serviced in accordance with U.S. Department of Education regulations. In addition, unless a loan default results from the borrower's death, disability or bankruptcy, the federal government guarantees only 98 percent of the principal balance (97 percent on loans disbursed after July 1, 2006) plus accrued interest and the holder of the loan generally must absorb the two percent (three percent after July 1, 2006) not guaranteed as a loss on the loan (Risk Sharing). FFELP loans serviced by a servicer that has an Exceptional Performer designation from the U.S. Department of Education are not subject to Risk Sharing and receive 100% reimbursement on default claims (99 percent reimbursement on default claims filed after July 1, 2006).

Additional Information - The following presentation contains certain information about the Company that management believes is important to investors, but should be read in conjunction with other material information about the Company, including, but not limited to, the operational, market and interest rate, political and regulatory, liquidity, credit, and consolidation loan refinancing risks that the Company faces. For a discussion of the risks described above as well as additional information about the Company you should refer to our most recent quarterly earnings release, quarterly report on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K, available on our website at (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo/earningsinfo>) and (<http://www2.salliemae.com/investors/stockholderinfo/secfilings>) and on the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>). For a discussion of the specific characteristics of any specific security, you should refer to the pricing supplement, prospectus supplement and/or prospectus applicable to that security.

Non-GAAP Core Earnings Performance Measures

Used by SLM's management in developing financial plans, tracking results, establishing corporate performance targets and determining incentive compensation

Used by equity investors, credit rating agencies and debt capital providers to measure the company's business performance

Treat securitizations as long-term financings, and exclude from core earnings (i) gains on sales from securitizations, (ii) derivatives mark-to-market adjustments, (iii) floor income, and (iv) amortization of acquired intangibles

Reflect only current period adjustments to GAAP earnings and are not a substitute for reported results under GAAP

May not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies

Note: Both a description of SLM's core earnings treatment and a full reconciliation to the GAAP income statement is contained in the supplemental earnings disclosure to the company's quarterly earnings releases and most recent Form 10-K.

What Makes SLM Unique

Limited Credit Risk

86% of student loans carried a U.S. government guarantee as of March 31, 2006

Total student loan losses were only 0.12% of managed student loans for the full year 2005

Limited Exposure to Interest Rate and Economic Cycles

Interest rate sensitivities of floating rate assets closely matched with floating rate liabilities

Growth and earnings not historically tied to interest rate or economic cycles

Conservative Risk-Adjusted Leverage

Tangible equity covered loan losses by 16x at year end 2005 vs. a median of 12x for Aa U.S. Banks

Pre-tax income covered loan losses by 12x in 2005 vs. a median of only 5x for Aa U.S. banks

Frequent Issuer with Stable Spreads

Frequent issuer, with active secondary markets made in both its corporate bonds and ABS

Issues AAA ABS or A corporate, 1 to 30 years, floating or fixed, US$, Euro and other

Highly stable spreads

The Federal Family Education Loan Program or FFELP

The Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP)

Provides banks and others an explicit U.S. government guarantee on student loans

Loan pricing, terms and maximum borrowing limits set by Congress

Made to undergraduate students, graduate students and their parents

Floating or fixed rate loans, with 10 to 30 year maturities and payments deferred until after graduation

Borrower outstandings typically range from $5,000 to $25,000, although balances can exceed $100,000 for graduate students

U.S. government interest subsidies assure FFELP lenders a yield on newly originated FFELP loans based on daily reset U.S. commercial paper rates

Growth in FFELP Loan Originations

Stable, Long-Term Growth

In 2005, more borrowers took out more FFELP loans with higher loan balances than ever before

Total federal student loan originations, including both FFELP and FDLP loans(1), increased by 9% in 2005, following a 13% increase in 2004

The U.S. Department of Education is projecting 8% average annual growth in federal student loan volume through 2012, without consideration for pending increases in FFELP loan limits

The Private Education Loan Market

Private Education Loans

Consumer loans made to students and parents specifically to fund the cost of undergraduate, graduate and other forms of post-secondary education

Typically used to bridge the funding gap between grants, aid and FFELP loans, and the increasing cost of higher education

Supplement U.S. Government guaranteed student loans, but not guaranteed by the U.S. Government

Typically offered with floating interest rates, with loan margins set based on the credit quality of the borrower

Generally 5 to 15 years in maturity, with terms similar to those offered under the guaranteed student loan program

Typically non-dischargeable in bankruptcy

Private Education Loan Market Demand

Private education loans help bridge the gap between funding available through government-sponsored programs and the rapidly increasing cost of education

Higher Education Act

Reauthorization

Higher Education Act Reauthorization

New student loan legislation effective July 1, 2006 is not expected to have a material impact on SLM's business

Changes include

Modest increase in FFELP loan borrowing limits effective July 1, 2007

Eligibility of graduate students for PLUS Loans

Borrower rates fixed at 6.8% for Stafford and 8.5% for PLUS loans; loans' effective yield to lenders remains the same

Lender reinsurance reduced from 100% to 99% for servicers designated as Exceptional Performers and 98% to 97% for all others

Lenders required to rebate floor income on new loans, recycling of 9.5% loans ended, in-school and Super 2-Step consolidation loans eliminated

New student loan provisions are expected to be in place through the next Reauthorization, currently set for the year 2012

Political Change and SLM Earnings Growth

Past legislation, no matter how radical, has not had a long-term impact on SLM's earnings

Impact of Changes in Student Loan Legislation

(1) Represents Managed Private Education Loan spread, before provision, and net charge-offs as a percentage of average Managed Private Education Loans in repayment.

Limited Interest Rate Risk

SLM's Interest Rate and Currency Hedging Philosophy

Fund floating rate assets with floating rate liabilities of comparable duration

Convert newly issued debt to US$ floating rates at the time of issue with interest rate swaps, currency swaps and interest rate caps

Manage a limited amount of basis risk only, primarily between CP and LIBOR

Monetize floor income using floor contracts

Stable Net Interest Margin

Extremely low loan losses and match funding of interest rate sensitivities of floating rate assets and floating rate liabilities make SLM's net interest margin highly stable

Low Operating Expenses

Unmatched Operating Efficiency -

SLM's operating expenses stood at only 38% of operating revenue in 2005(1), following three years of steady improvement

SLM's operating efficiency ratio far outdistanced that of its peers from 2001 through 2005 (1)(2)

Highly Predictable Earnings

SLM has generated highly consistent earnings and cash flow since its inception in 1973

Steady growth in the student loan market, the guaranteed nature of SLM's assets and strict asset and liability management policy protect SLM from economic and interest rate cycles

Highly Stable Earnings

Highly Stable Core Earnings -

Between 2001 and 2005, SLM's core earnings ROA displayed less than 1/3 the average volatility of leading Aa banks and 1/5 the average of highly rated finance companies(1)

SLM's earnings have not in the past been subject to the significant operating risks trading losses, loan write-offs, restructuring charges or litigation expenses experienced by others
