On October 16, 2006 (the Effective Date ), Iteris, Inc. (the Company ) entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the Loan Agreement ) with Silicon Valley Bank ( SVB ). The new $8.0 million line of credit with SVB, which is available until two years from the Effective Date, will replace the Company s $5.0 million line of credit with Wells Fargo Bank ( Wells Fargo ), which expired on July 31, 2006 and was extended until October 31, 2006, and the Company s $2.1 million term note payable with Wells Fargo, which is due May 27, 2008. All borrowings under the Loan Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company.

Under the terms of the Loan Agreement, the Company may borrow against its eligible accounts receivable and the value of its eligible inventory. Interest on borrowed amounts is payable monthly at the greater of 8.50% or the current stated prime rate plus 1.25% (9.50% at September 30, 2006). In addition, the Company is obligated to pay a monthly unused line fee of 0.25% per annum applied to the average unused portion of the maximum credit amount during the preceding month and a monthly collateral monitoring fee associated with the line of credit of $2,000. The Loan Agreement requires the payment of a commitment fee of 0.50% of the maximum credit amount in connection with the effectiveness of the agreement and an additional 0.50% on the first anniversary of the Effective Date. The Company is also required to pay an early termination fee equal to 2.0% of the maximum credit amount if such early termination occurs on or prior to the first anniversary of the Effective Date and 1.0% of the maximum credit amount if such early termination occurs after the first anniversary of the Effective Date.

Additionally, the Loan Agreement provides for a term loan of up to $2.2 million (which will reduce the maximum credit amount under the line of credit by the amount of such loan), which the Company intends to use to repay all amounts outstanding under the term note payable to Wells Fargo, which was $2.1 million in the aggregate (including all accrued but unpaid interest) as of October 19, 2006. The term loan with SVB is due on May 27, 2008 and provides for monthly principal payments equal to the greater of (i) $104,600 or (ii) the principal amount of such loan divided into 20 equal installments. Interest accrues at the greater of 8.50% or the current stated prime rate plus 1.25% (9.50% at September 30, 2006).

In the event of a default, which includes a failure to meet certain financial covenants and a material adverse change in the business, operations or condition of the Company, the Bank may, among other things, declare all obligations immediately due and payable, stop advancing money or extending credit and place a hold on any accounts maintained by the Company with SVB.
