Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 17, 2007, Pogo Producing Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), Plains Exploration & Production Company, a Delaware corporation ( PXP ), and PXP Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ( Merger Sub ), entered into a merger agreement (the Merger Agreement), whereby the Company will merge with and into Merger Sub (the Merger), a wholly owned direct subsidiary of PXP. The Merger Agreement, which was unanimously approved by the Company's Board of Directors and the Board of Directors of PXP, provides for PXP's acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, par value $1.00 per share, for aggregate consideration of approximately $1.46 billion in cash and 40 million shares of PXP's common stock, or approximately $3.6 billion based on the closing price of PXP's stock on July 16, 2007.

Upon completion of the Merger, each share of the Company's common stock will be converted automatically into the right to receive $24.88 in cash and 0.68201 shares of common stock of PXP (the Merger Consideration). The Company's stockholders may elect to receive either cash or shares of PXP common stock for each share of the Company's common stock, subject to proration if either the cash or stock election is oversubscribed. In addition, if the 10-day average trading price of PXP shares at the time of the Merger varies from the closing price at July 13, 2007, certain adjustment provisions will apply. These adjustment provisions are intended to approximately equalize the then-market value of the PXP shares being issued and the amount of cash being paid to those stockholders who elect to receive all stock or all cash. The aggregate amount of cash being paid and the aggregate number of PXP shares being issued will not change, however. These adjustment provisions are set forth in the Merger Agreement and will be more fully described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus to be filed by the Company and PXP. In addition, all options to purchase the Company's stock issued to its directors and officers will be cancelled in exchange for the cash equivalent of the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the applicable option exercise price, and all restricted stock awarded to the Company's employees will immediately vest and be converted into the Merger Consideration, in each case as more fully described in the Merger Agreement.

Completion of the Merger is conditioned upon, among other things, adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders, approval by PXP's stockholders of its issuance of additional shares of PXP common stock and consummation of the Company's previously announced sale of its Canadian operations conducted through its wholly owned subsidiary, Northrock Resources Ltd. The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants and other customary conditions.

The Merger Agreement contains termination rights, including for the Company if its board of directors changes its recommendation to its stockholders in connection with a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement). Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay PXP a termination fee of $100 million. The Company is also obligated to reimburse PXP for up to $10 million of its expenses related to the Merger if specified termination events occur. The Company or PXP may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not completed by December 31, 2007 (subject to extension in certain circumstances to February 28, 2008) and under other customary circumstances.

As a condition to executing the Merger Agreement, PXP entered into irrevocable voting agreements whereby Paul G. Van Wagenen, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Third Point LLC agreed to vote their shares in the Company in favor of the proposed transaction unless the Merger Agreement is earlier terminated. Mr. Van Wagenen and Third Point LLC beneficially own approximately 1.3% and 7.9%, respectively, of the Company's outstanding common stock. Further, the Company entered into a termination agreement with Third Point LLC and its affiliates providing that the Stockholders Agreement dated March 12, 2007 among them terminates upon effectiveness of the Merger.

Investors are cautioned that the representations, warranties and covenants included in the Merger Agreement were made by the Company and PXP to each other. These representations, warranties and covenants were made as of specific dates and only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to important exceptions and limitations, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally relevant to investors, and are qualified by information in disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with the execution of the agreement. In addition, the representations and warranties may have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and PXP, rather than to establish matters as facts.

The Merger Agreement is described in this Current Report on Form 8-K and attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto only to provide you with information regarding certain material terms and conditions, and, except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relationship among the parties thereto with respect to the Merger, not to provide any other factual information regarding the Company, PXP or their respective businesses or the actual conduct of their respective businesses during the pendency of the Merger Agreement. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company, PXP or any other person. Furthermore, you should not rely on the covenants in the Merger Agreement as actual limitations on the respective businesses of the Company and PXP, because either party may take certain actions that are either expressly permitted in the disclosure schedules to the Merger Agreement or as otherwise consented to by the appropriate party, which consent may be given without notice to the public.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this Current Report on Form 8-K by reference. The Merger Agreement provides further information regarding the terms of the Merger.

Item 3.03. Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

On July 17, 2007, in connection with the Merger and pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company amended its Rights Agreement (the Amendment ) with Computershare Trust Company, N.A., as Rights Agent, dated as of April 26, 1994 (as amended, the Rights Agreement ) to provide that the Company s entry into the Merger Agreement and the consummation of any transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will not trigger any of the provisions of the Rights Agreement.

The Amendment to the Rights Agreement is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report. The foregoing description of the Amendment to the Rights Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment to the Rights Agreement which is filed as an exhibit hereto, and is incorporated into this Current Report on Form 8-K by reference.
