Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 8, 2007, Crocs, Inc. (the Company) entered into a credit agreement (Revolving Credit Facility) with Union Bank of California, N.A. (the Bank). On March 31, 2009, the Company entered into a tenth amendment (the Amendment) of the Revolving Credit Facility. Upon execution of the Amendment, the Company paid approximately $1.6 million, to be applied against the principal balance of the Revolving Credit Facility. The Amendment extends the maturity date of the Revolving Credit Facility from April 2, 2009 to September 30, 2009. Additionally, the Amendment provides that the Company will pay accrued and unpaid interest on the first day of each month and make monthly principal payments through August 31, 2009 ranging from $1 million to $4 million. All principal amounts outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility will bear interest at rates based on a premium over the Bank 's reference rate tied to the then-outstanding principal balance. At the inception of the Amendment, this constitutes a decrease in interest rates from the previous agreement between the parties. At maturity, all remaining principal and interest is due and payable to the Bank. The Amendment continues to require the Company to periodically provide certain financial information to the Bank. The current outstanding balance of the Revolving Credit Facility, after the effect of the Amendment, is $19.8 million. The Company has no additional borrowings available under the Revolving Credit Facility.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits.

10.1 Amendment No. 10 to Loan Agreement, dated as of March 31, 2009 by and between Crocs, Inc. and Union Bank of California, N.A.
