Transaction Litigation

On March 29, 2019, Newmont Mining Corporation (Newmont or the Company) entered into a memorandum of understanding with the plaintiff to resolve a class-action lawsuit captioned Laidlaw v. Boyce, et al., Case No. 2019CV30569 (Colo. Dist. Ct., Arapahoe Cty.) (the Matter). The Matter was filed in the District Court of the State of Colorado, Arapahoe County, concerning the business combination transaction whereby Newmont Mining Corporation (Newmont or the Company) will acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Goldcorp Inc. (Goldcorp) and Goldcorp will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Newmont (the proposed Newmont Goldcorp transaction). The Matter was filed on behalf of a purported stockholder of Newmont (the plaintiff). The complaint names Newmont and the individual members of Newmont's board of directors as defendants (collectively, the defendants). The Matter alleges, among other things, that the defendants failed to make adequate disclosures in Newmont's preliminary proxy statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on February 22, 2019, relating to the proposed Newmont Goldcorp transaction. The defendants believe that the allegations in the complaint are without merit.

In connection with the resolution of the Matter, Newmont will make the amended and supplemental disclosures set forth below (the Amended and Supplemental Disclosures) to Newmont's definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 11, 2019, relating to the proposed Newmont Goldcorp transaction (the Proxy Statement). The plaintiff has agreed to voluntarily discontinue with prejudice his individual claims in the Matter, and discontinue without prejudice the claims asserted on behalf of a purported class of Newmont's stockholders.

While the defendants believe that the disclosures set forth in the Proxy Statement comply fully with applicable law, to avoid the risk that the Matter may delay or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the proposed Newmont Goldcorp transaction, to minimize the expense of defending such action and to provide additional information to Newmont's stockholders, Newmont will make these Amended and Supplemental Disclosures. Nothing in the Amended and Supplemental Disclosures shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the disclosures set forth herein or in the Proxy Statement. To the contrary, the defendants deny all allegations in the Matter that any additional disclosure was or is required.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE PROXY STATEMENT

The Company has agreed to make these supplemental disclosures to the Proxy Statement. This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. Defined terms used but not defined below have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Proxy Statement. Paragraph references used herein refer to the Proxy Statement before any additions or deletions resulting from the supplemental disclosures. The information contained herein speaks only as of April 1, 2019 unless the information indicates another date applies.

The annual pre-tax synergies are expected to be comprised of up to $85 million from general and administrative expenses (G&A) and up to $15 million from supply chain savings. The Company expects to begin implementing the strategies necessary to realize the synergies following the closing of the arrangement, which is expected to occur during the second quarter of 2019.
