PROXY STATEMENT FOR
2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 5, 2003

This proxy statement is being furnished by and on behalf of the board of directors of Capital Trust, Inc. (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, June 5, 2003, at the offices of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, 75 East 55th

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

Street, New York, New York 10022, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to

- o elect the following nominees (the "Nominees") as directors of the Company to serve until the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders and until such directors' successors are elected and have duly qualified: Samuel Zell, Jeffrey A. Altman, Thomas E. Dobrowski, Martin L. Edelman, Gary R. Garrabrant, Craig M. Hatkoff, John R. Klopp, Henry N. Nassau, Sheli Z. Rosenberg, Steven Roth and Lynne B. Sagalyn ("Proposal 1"),
- o ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 ("Proposal 2"), and
- o transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The principal offices of the Company are located at 410 Park Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, New York 10022 and the Company's telephone number is (212) 655-0220.

The Company effected a one (1) for three (3) reverse stock split of its outstanding shares of class A common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Class A Common Stock"), effective April 2, 2003. Where a number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding or issuable upon exercise of outstanding stock options or the per share Class A Common Stock trading market or option exercise price is set forth in this proxy statement for a date or period prior to the effective date of the reverse stock split, that number of shares of Class A Common Stock or per share prices has been proportionately adjusted as if the one (1) for three (3) reverse stock split had been in effect on that prior date or during that prior period.

This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are being sent to stockholders on or about April 30, 2003.

Voting Rights; Record Date

Only holders of record of shares of the Class A Common Stock at the close of business on April 28, 2003 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and may vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, there were issued and outstanding 5,425,678 shares of Class A Common Stock, each of which is entitled to one vote on the matters presented for stockholder action at the Annual Meeting.

The enclosed proxy provides a means for a stockholder to vote for the election of all Nominees as directors or to withhold the authority to vote for the election of one or more nominees and to vote for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2003 or abstain from voting on such matter. With respect to each of the two proposals expected to be presented for a vote of stockholders, the presence, in person or by duly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum in order to transact business. Abstentions or votes withheld will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote on both proposals, although they will count toward the presence of a quorum.

The election of each of the Nominees requires a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors requires a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting.

The Company's officers and directors and stockholders indirectly controlled by trusts for the benefit of the family of Samuel Zell, the Company's chairman of the board, collectively own or control the vote over 2,568,388 shares of Class A Common Stock (approximately 47.3% of the 5,425,678 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding as of the Record Date) and have advised the Company that they intend to vote for (1) the election as a director of the Company of each of the Nominees, and (2) the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2003.

Voting of Proxies; Revocation

All duly executed proxies received by the Company in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the instructions given therein by the person executing the proxy. In the absence of instructions, duly executed proxies will be voted FOR the election of each of the Nominees as a director, and the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2003. As to other matters properly presented for stockholder action, if any, the individuals designated as proxies will vote in accordance with their discretion. No other matters are expected to be presented for stockholder action at the Annual Meeting.

The submission of a signed proxy will not affect the right of a holder of Class A Common Stock to attend, or to vote in person at, the Annual Meeting. You may revoke or change your proxy at any time prior to its use at the Annual Meeting by giving the Company written direction to revoke it, by giving the Company a new proxy or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy given by you. Written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be sent to Capital Trust, Inc. c/o American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 6201 Fifteenth Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11219, Attention: Paula Caroppoli, or hand-delivered to Capital Trust, Inc. c/o American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, so as to be delivered at or before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting.

Solicitation

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited by the Company's directors, officers and other employees by personal interview, telephone, telegram and other means of communication. Such persons will receive no additional compensation for such services. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of shares of the Company's stock held of record by such brokers and other fiduciaries. The Company will reimburse the brokers and other fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred when the solicitation materials are forwarded.

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

The number of directors that comprise the entire board of directors has been fixed at eleven. All eleven directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting to hold office as directors until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are elected and shall have qualified. All Nominees are currently members of the board of directors. All Nominees, if elected, are expected to serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders.

The board of directors has been informed that all of the Nominees are willing to serve as directors but, if any of them should decline or be unable to act as a director, the individuals designated as proxies will exercise the discretionary authority provided in the enclosed proxy to vote for the election of such substitute nominee selected by the board of directors, unless the board alternatively acts to reduce the size of the board in accordance with the Company's bylaws. The board of directors has no reason to believe that any such nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays two of its non-employee directors an annual cash retainer of $30,000, which is paid monthly. Seven non-employee directors are not paid any cash fees for their services as such, but rather are compensated with an annual award of stock units under the Company's non-employee director stock plan with a value equal to $30,000. The remaining non-employee director is not compensated for his service as a director. The number of stock units awarded to each director, which are convertible into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock according to individual schedules set by each director, is determined quarterly in arrears by dividing one-quarter of the annual retainer amount ($7,500) by the average closing price of the Class A Common Stock for the quarter. The stock units vest when issued. There is no separate compensation for service on committees of the board of directors. All directors are also reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending board and committee meetings.

Employment Agreement

The Company is a party to an employment agreement with John R. Klopp. The employment agreement provided for an initial five-year term of employment that ended July 15, 2002. The agreement was successively automatically extended for two additional one year renewal terms, the latest of which ends on July 15, 2004. The agreement's extension options extend the agreement for additional one year terms automatically unless terminated by either party by April 17 of each year preceding the commencement of the next successive additional one year term. Mr. Klopp currently receives an annual base salary of $600,000, subject to calendar year cost of living increases at the discretion of the board of directors. Mr. Klopp is also entitled to annual incentive cash bonuses to be determined by the board of directors based on individual performance and the profitability of the Company. Mr. Klopp is also a participant in the incentive stock and other employee benefit plans of the Company.

If the employment of Mr. Klopp is terminated without cause, with good reason or following a change of control, as those terms are defined in the employment agreement, he would be entitled to (i) a severance payment equal to the greater of the amount payable to him over the remainder of the term of the employment agreement or an amount equal to the aggregate base salary and cash incentive bonus paid to him during the previous year; (ii) continued welfare benefits for two years; and (iii) automatic vesting of all unvested stock options such that all of his stock options would become immediately exercisable. Each vested option will remain exercisable for a period of one year following his termination. The employment agreement provides for a non-competition period of one year if Mr. Klopp terminates his employment voluntarily or is terminated for cause.

Stock Options and Long Term Incentive Plan

The following table sets forth stock options issued in 2002 to a Named Executive Officer. The table also sets forth the hypothetical gains that would exist for the stock options at the end of their ten-year terms, assuming compound rates of appreciation of 5% and 10% from the $15.90 trading market price on the February 1, 2002 date of grant. The actual future value of the options will depend on the market value of the Company's Class A Common Stock.

(1) The amounts of potential realizable value, which are based on assumed appreciation rates of 5% and 10% prescribed by the Commission rules, are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the Company's share price. The amounts of potential value with respect to the options do not account for expiration of the options upon termination of employment or the phased-in exercise schedule. Future compensation resulting from the options is based solely on the actual performance of the Company's share price in the trading market.

(2) Represents rights to receive cash payments pursuant to cash incentive bonus agreements based on the incentive distributions received by the Company from its incentive interest in CT Mezzanine Partners II LP ("Fund II"), the Company's second real estate mezzanine fund. Under the discretionary incentive bonus program, the Company may allocate 50% of the incentive distributions received by it to key employees. The right to cash bonus payments allocated to the bonus recipients vest in equal increments of 50% of the percentage of the Company's incentive distributions granted on each of the first and second anniversaries of the February 1, 2002 date of grant. Messrs. Plavin and Shugrue were each granted a right to receive cash payments equal to the incentive distributions received from 4.7% of the Company's incentive interest in Fund II.

(3) There is no specific period upon which the cash payments in respect of the incentive cash bonus agreements are paid. Fund II's investment period expired April 9, 2003 and cash payments will only be received by the recipients as the investments in Fund II mature or pay off and the fund is liquidated. It is currently expected that the fund's investments will mature and pay off and the fund will liquidate in 2007.

(4) The incentive cash bonus agreements do not provide for minimum or maximum cash payments. The amount of cash payments, if any, will depend on the whether Fund II returns 100% of the capital invested and provides the specified minimum 10% rate of return on invested capital to the private equity investors in the fund. The target amounts shown in the table assumes the performance of all investments in Fund II and that they mature or pay off and the fund liquidates on December 31, 2007 and that the fund provides a compounded annual return of 16% for private equity investors. There can be no assurance that the fund will perform in accordance with the foregoing and produce returns that will generate incentive distributions.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Commission and the NYSE. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by regulation of the Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto available to the Company and written representations from certain of the directors, officers and 10% stockholders that no form is required to be filed, the Company believes that no director, officer or beneficial owner of more than 10% of its Class A Common Stock failed to file on a timely basis reports required pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to 2002, except that Form 4s required to be filed in September, 2002 and December, 2002 by Lynne B. Sagalyn, Martin L. Edelman, Samuel Zell, Sheli Z. Rosenberg, Gary R. Garrabrant and Craig M. Report on Executive Compensation*

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

Introduction

The Company's compensation committees administer its compensation programs. The compensation committee establishes and administers the compensation and benefit arrangements for officers and key employees (except to the extent vested in the performance compensation committee). The performance compensation committee (which is comprised of the independent members of the compensation committee) establishes and administers the compensation programs as they relate to executive officers of the Company. The performance compensation committee may receive recommendations from the compensation committee, but it is empowered to accept or reject, or increase or decrease, any award or component of compensation recommended by the compensation committee.

Compensation for 2002

The Company's 2002 executive compensation program consisted of three elements: an annual base salary, annual bonus compensation and long-term incentive compensation.

Mr. Klopp received a $600,000 annual salary which was previously approved by the board of directors and the other executive officers also received their previously established or negotiated salaries. The performance compensation committee's goal is to provide competitive executive compensation packages as means of retaining its executive officers. To that end, the committee strives to compensate executive officers with salaries that are commensurate with prevailing compensation practices in the financial services industry. Salaries vary according to the levels of responsibility undertaken by the executive officers.

The performance compensation committee's goals with annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation are to focus executive behavior on the fulfillment of long-term and annual business objectives, and to create a sense of ownership in the Company that causes executive decisions to be aligned with the best interests of the Company's stockholders.

For 2002, the board of directors established the following goals for the Company:

- o originating new investments for funds under management consistent with their investment strategy;
- o rationalizing and simplifying the capital structure of the Company; and

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

- o exploring strategic alternatives to maximize stockholder value.

The performance compensation committee considered executive officer performance in achieving the Company's goals. The Company originated approximately $549 million of new investments for its funds under management in 2002. During the year, the Company redeemed the entire non-convertible portion of its outstanding convertible trust preferred securities, significantly reducing the Company's cost of capital, and repurchased 2,338,070 shares of its class A common stock on an accretive basis. In addition, management negotiated a modification of the Company's strategic relationship with affiliates of Citigroup Inc. that included the acquisition of warrants to purchase 8,528,467 of the Company's class A common stock, thereby eliminating the potential dilution from those derivative securities. Lastly, management completed a comprehensive analysis of strategic alternatives to maximize stockholder value which resulted in the adoption of a plan by the board of directors for the Company to elect REIT status commencing January 1, 2003. In recognition of his leadership in achieving these goals, the performance compensation committee awarded Mr. Klopp a $1,100,000 cash bonus. The performance compensation committee awarded cash bonuses to other executive officers again based on each executive officer's contribution to achieving the Company's goals for 2002. In connection with its evaluation, the committee considered the executive officer's level of job responsibility and relative influence on the Company's ability to manage successfully and accomplish the goals. The performance compensation committee is currently reviewing long term goals and related incentive compensation and may award incentive compensation in 2002.

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility in the Company's tax return of compensation over $1 million to any of the executive officers of the Company unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan which is performance-related, non-discretionary and has been approved by the Company's stockholders. The performance compensation committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) is to make every reasonable effort to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted while simultaneously providing Company executives with appropriate rewards for their performance. During 2002, the Company paid its executive officers approximately $1,434,874 aggregate cash compensation that was non-deductible pursuant to Section 162(m). In awarding the cash bonuses that produced the non-deductible compensation expense, the performance compensation committee determined that the advantages to the Company of awarding compensation at that level as a reward for the previously discussed leadership of Mr. Klopp and the contributions of the other executive officers outweighed the loss of the tax deduction. The performance compensation committee will continue to consider on a case-by-case basis whether particular compensation awards and programs that do not satisfy the conditions of Section 162(m) outweigh the costs to the Company of the loss of the related tax deduction.

PROPOSAL 2 -- RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Description of Proposal

The board of directors of the Company has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, and has further directed that the appointment of such accountants be submitted for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. The Company has been advised by Ernst & Young LLP that neither that firm nor any of its associates has any relationship with the Company or its subsidiaries other than the usual relationship that exists between independent certified public accountants and clients. Ernst & Young LLP will have a representative at the Annual Meeting who will have an opportunity to make a statement, if he or she so desires, and who will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

Stockholder ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors is not required by the Company's charter or otherwise. However, the board of directors is submitting the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of what it considers to be good corporate practice. Even if the appointment is ratified, the board of directors in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the board of directors determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Fees billed to Company by Ernst & Young LLP for Fiscal 2002

Audit Fees:

Audit fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K and the review of interim financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q totaled $174,380.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees:

The Company did not engage Ernst & Young LLP to provide advice to the Company regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

All Other Fees:

Fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP for all other non-audit services rendered to the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, including tax related services, totaled $301,457.

The audit committee of the board of directors was advised of the services provided by Ernst & Young LLP that are unrelated to the audit of the annual fiscal year end financial statements and the review of interim financial statements and has considered whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence as the Company's independent auditor.

Vote Required; Recommendation

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors. The board of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote for the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors.
