Other Events

On July 18, 2018, Fly Leasing Limited (“Fly”) completed the initial transfer of aircraft (the “Initial Transfers”) pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement (the “SPA”), dated February 28, 2018, among Fly, its subsidiary, Fly Aladdin Holdings Limited (“Fly Aladdin”), AirAsia Group Berhad (“AAGB”), as successor to AirAsia Berhad (“AirAsia”), and its subsidiary, Asia Aviation Capital Limited (“AACL”). As of July 18, 2018, nine Airbus A320-200 aircraft on operating leases to AirAsia and its affiliated airlines (the “AirAsia Group”) have been transferred pursuant to the SPA and related agreements, in partial completion of Fly’s previously announced acquisition of a major portfolio of aircraft and engines from AACL. Fly expects to complete the transfer of the remaining assets in the portfolio, comprised of 24 additional Airbus A320-200 aircraft and seven engines on operating leases to the AirAsia Group, and one Airbus A320-200 aircraft on operating lease to a third-party airline, by the end of the third quarter of 2018 (the “Portfolio A Transactions”).

Fly also will acquire 21 Airbus A320neo family aircraft on operating leases to the AirAsia Group as the aircraft deliver from Airbus between 2019 and 2021, and will have the option to purchase 20 Airbus A320neo family aircraft, not subject to lease, which begin delivering from the manufacturer in 2019 (together with the Portfolio A Transactions, the “AirAsia Transactions”).

In connection with the Initial Transfers, on July 11, 2018, Fly, Fly Aladdin, AAGB and AACL, agreed to amend (“SPA Amendment No. 1”) the SPA to reduce the minimum number of assets required to be transferred in the Initial Transfers, to provide that the “End Date” for the Portfolio A Transactions shall be October 31, 2018, or such later date as is agreed by the parties in writing, and to make certain other technical changes. In addition, on July 18, 2018, Fly, Fly Aladdin, AAGB and AACL, agreed to a further amendment of the SPA to reflect the removal of one Airbus A320-200 aircraft from the Portfolio A Transactions and its replacement with a substantially equivalent Airbus A320-200 aircraft (“SPA Amendment No. 2” and, together with “SPA Amendment No. 1, the “SPA Amendments”).

In connection with SPA Amendment No. 2, on July 19, 2018, Fly Aladdin Funding Limited and Fly Aladdin MaltaCo Limited (collectively, the “Borrowers”), agreed with BNP Paribas (“BNPP”), Wilmington Trust (London) Limited (“WTLL”), and a consortium of lenders (the “Lenders”), to amend the Senior Secured Credit Agreement, dated as of June 15, 2018, among the Borrowers, WTLL, not in its individual capacity but solely as Security Trustee, BNPP, as administrative agent, and the Lenders, to accommodate the removal and replacement of the Airbus A320-200 aircraft described in the immediately preceding paragraph, and to make certain other technical changes.

In contemplation of the Initial Transfers, on July 11, 2018, Fly entered into a securities purchase agreement (the “Onex Securities Purchase Agreement”) with Meridian Aviation Partners Limited (“Meridian”), and certain other affiliates of Onex Corporation (together with Meridian and its other affiliates, “Onex”), and on July 13, 2018, issued and sold to Meridian 666,667 of its common shares in the form of ADSs, at a purchase price of $15.00 per share, in a private placement transaction. Also on July 11, 2018, Fly entered into a securities purchase agreement (the “Summit Securities Purchase Agreement”) with Summit Aviation Holdings LLC (“Summit”), and on July 13, 2018, issued and sold to members of the management team of BBAM Limited Partnership and its subsidiaries (“BBAM”) 666,667 of its common shares in the form of ADSs, at a purchase price of $15.00 per share, in a private placement transaction. All Fly common shares held by Onex, and the newly issued Fly common shares held by members of the BBAM management team, are subject to a 180-day lock-up from the date of issuance.

Finally, on July 18, 2018, Fly entered into a subscription agreement (the “AirAsia Subscription Agreement” and, together with the Onex Securities Purchase Agreement and the Summit Securities Purchase Agreement, the “Securities Purchase Agreements”) with AAGB and AirAsia, pursuant to which Fly will issue 3,333,333 of its common shares in the form of ADSs, valued at $15.00 per share, to AAGB, as contemplated by the SPA. This transaction is expected to close during the third quarter of 2018. The Fly common shares to be issued to AAGB will be subject to lock-up restrictions until 2021, as well as voting and standstill undertakings until AAGB and its affiliates own less than 10% of Fly’s outstanding shares. Fly has agreed to register the common shares issued and sold pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreements for resale with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
