PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS JULY 10, 2003 SOLICITATION, EXECUTION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The mailing address of the principal corporate office of the Company is 9449 Science Center Drive, New Hope, MN 55428. This Proxy Statement and the form of proxy, which is enclosed, are being mailed to the Company's shareholders commencing on or about June 17, 2003.

Proxies in the accompanying form are solicited on behalf, and at the direction, of the Board of Directors of the Company. All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies, unless such proxies have previously been revoked, will be voted in accordance with the direction of the proxies. If no direction is indicated, the shares will be voted in accordance with the direction of the proxies. If any other matters are properly presented at the meeting for action, including a question of adjourning the meeting from time to time, the persons named in the proxies and acting thereunder will have discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgement.

When stock is in the name of more than one person, each such person should sign the proxy. If the shareholder is a corporation, the proxy should be signed in the name of such corporation by an executive or other authorized officer. If signed as attorney, executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or in any other representative capacity, the signer's full-title should be given and, if not previously furnished, a certificate or other evidence of appointment should be furnished.

A shareholder executing and returning a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. A shareholder who wishes to revoke a proxy can do so by executing a late dated proxy relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting, by written notice of revocation received by the Secretary prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting, or by appearing in person at the Annual Meeting, filing a written notice of revocation and voting in person the shares to which the proxy relates.

In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone and telegram by the directors, officers and regular employees of the Company. Such persons will receive no additional compensation for such services. Arrangements will also be made with certain brokerage firms and certain other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Common Stock held of record by such persons, and such brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in connection therewith will be borne by the Company. All expenses incurred in connection with this solicitation will be borne by the Company.

The Company is including with this Proxy Statement its Annual Report to shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2002, which includes a copy of the Company's Form 10-K registration as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Shareholders may receive, without charge, additional copies of the Form 10-K registration, by writing to Vicom, Inc. at its principal corporate office.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on May 14, 2003 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to vote at this meeting. On the Record Date, there were 15,181,700 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote, exercisable in person or by proxy, for each share of common stock held of record on the Record Date. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date is required for approval of the proposals to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

The following table sets forth certain information as of May 14, 2003 with respect to each person known by the Company to be the beneficial owner of more than 5 percent of its Common Stock, each director of the Company, and all officers and directors of the Company as a group. Except as indicated, each of the persons listed in the following table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares set forth opposite his name.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Eight persons have been nominated for election at the 2003 Annual Meeting as directors for a one year term expiring at the 2004 Annual Meeting. The directors will hold office for the term for which elected and will serve until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

It is intended that votes will be cast pursuant to the enclosed proxy for the election of the nominees in the table below, except for those proxies which withhold such authority. In the event that the proxy will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as the management may recommend in the place of such nominee. The management has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will not be candidates or will be unable to serve.

INFORMATION ABOUT NOMINEES

The following information has been furnished to the Company by the respective nominees for director.

Edgar Filing: VICOM INC - Form DEF 14A

is also Chairman of Vicom's Audit Committee.

FRANK BENNETT has been a director of Vicom, Inc. since 2002 and is currently on the Audit Committee. Since 1988 he has also been President of Artesian Capital, a private equity investment company. From 1996 through 1999, he was co-founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of One Call Telecom, Inc., a private telecom carrier. He has served as a director of various private companies from 1990 through 2001, including Waycrosse, Inc., and Integ, Incorporated, which was privately held from 1992 through 1996 and publicly held from 1996 through 2001. Beginning in 1996, he served on the Audit Committee of Integ, Incorporated until its merger in 2001 with Inverness Medical, Inc. He has also held various executive level positions at Mayfield Corp. and Piper, Jaffray Companies, Inc.

DAVID WEISS has been a Director of Vicom since 2002. He is currently Managing Principal for Rangeline Capital, LLC, a real estate investing banking company. Prior to forming Rangeline in 2002, Mr. Weiss was Managing Director for the St. Louis office of Northland/Marquette Capital Group.

The Company knows of no arrangements or understandings between a director or nominee and any other person pursuant to which any person has been selected as a director or nominee. There is no family relationship between any of the nominees, directors or executive officers of the company.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors met four times on a regular basis in 2002. As permitted by Minnesota Law, the Board of Directors also acted from time to time during 2002 by unanimous written consent in lieu of conducting formal meetings. Last year, there were four such actions and accompanying Board Resolutions passed. The Board has designated an audit committee consisting of Jon Dodge, Donald Miller and Frank Bennett. The Board also designated a compensation committee consisting of Frank Bennett and David Weiss.

Our audit committee,

- o recommends to our board of directors the independent auditors to conduct the annual audit of our books and records;
- o review the proposed scope and results of the audit;
- o approves the audit fees to be paid;
- o review accounting and financial controls with the independent public accountants and our financial and accounting staff; and
- o review and approves transactions between us and our directors, officers and affiliates.

Our compensation committee,

- o reviews and recommends the compensation arrangements for management, including the compensation for our chief executive officer; and

- o establishes and reviews general compensation policies with the objective to attract and retain superior talent, to reward individual performance and to achieve our financial goals.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Edgar Filing: VICOM INC - Form DEF 14A

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, and financial reporting practices of the Company. During the year ended December 31, 2002, the Committee met four times, and Donald Miller, as the Audit Committee chair and representative of the Audit Committee, discussed the interim financial information contained in quarterly earnings announcement with the Company's Chief Financial Officer and the Company's independent auditors prior to public release.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Audit Committee obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," discussed with the auditors any relationships that may affect their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee also discussed with management and the independent auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls. The Audit Committee reviewed with both the independent auditors their audit plans, audit scope, and identification of audit risks.

The Audit Committee discussed and reviewed with the Company's independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees" and, both with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' examination of the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 with management and the independent auditors. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements and the Company's independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the review referred to above and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also recommended the reappointment, subject to shareholder approval, of the independent auditors and the Board of Directors concurred in such recommendation.

OTHER COMPENSATION AND LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLANS

The Company has no long-term incentive plans and issued no long-term incentive awards during 2003.

The Company has an employment agreement with Mr. Steven Bell, President, for the term beginning January 2002 and expiring December 2004. Mr. Bell's compensation is not directly tied to the Company's performance. The agreement states that annual base salary for Mr. Bell will be between $ 125,000 and $135,000 per year. Other key provisions of the contract include an agreement by Mr. Bell to keep confidential information secret both during and after employment by the Company and covenants not to compete with the Company for one year from the date of termination of employment. The contract also provides Mr. Bell with 75,000 stock options at market price, vested over a three year period.

The Company maintains key man life insurance policies in the amount of $1,000,000 each on the lives of Steven Bell and Marvin Frieman. The Company is the beneficiary of these policies and has adopted a plan to pay fifty percent of all life insurance proceeds to the spouse or surviving children of each such officer.

The Company also has a three year employment agreement, from January 2002 to December 2004, with James L. Mandel, Chief Executive Officer, the terms of which involve an annual base salary of $200,000 and a stock option of 300,000 shares at $1.50 per share, vested over a three year period. Mr. Mandel's job responsibilities involve developing company business plans, developing expansion and growth opportunities and directing other executive officers.

The Company had a three year employment agreement, from December 1999 to November 2002, with David Ekman as President of CTU. The terms of the agreement pay Mr. Ekman an annual salary $110,000 per year. Mr. Ekman also has a warrant to purchase 100,000 shares of Vicom Common Stock at a price of $2.00 per share and a stock option for 150,000 shares, vested over a three-year period at a price of $2.00 per share. Mr. Ekman's job responsibilities involve direct supervision of CTUs daily operations. A contract renewal With Mr. Ekman is currently being negotiated.

PREFERRED STOCK

In December 1998, Vicom issued 2,550 shares of Class A Preferred for $23,638 and 37,550 shares of Class B Preferred for $359,893. The Class B Preferred was offered to certain note holders at a conversion rate of $10.00 per share of Class B Preferred. Each share of Class A Preferred and Class B Preferred is non-voting (except as otherwise required by law) and convertible into five shares of common stock, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. Each holder of a share of Class A Preferred or Class B Preferred has a five-year warrant to purchase one share of common stock at $3.00 per share, subject to adjustment. During 2001, Vicom issued 67,655 shares of Class A Preferred for $676,556.

In June 2000, Vicom issued 80,500 shares of Class C Preferred for $805,000. The Class C Preferred was offered to certain note holders at a conversion rate of $10.00 a share. In September 2000, Vicom issued an additional 72,810 shares of Class C Preferred for $728,100. Each share of Class C Preferred is non-voting (except as otherwise required by law) and convertible into two shares of Vicom common stock, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances.

In November 2000, Vicom issued 72,500 shares of Class D Preferred for $490,332. The Class D Preferred was sold to eight accredited investors at $10.00 per share. Each share of Class D Preferred is non-voting (except as otherwise required by law) and convertible into two and one-half shares of Vicom Common Stock, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances.

In the second quarter of 2002, Preferred Class D stocks were redeemed; $100,000 converted to Common Stock, and $300,000 converted to a Note Payable.

In the fourth quarter of 2002, Vicom issued 70,000 shares of Class E Preferred for $700,000, with $600,000 related to conversion of a note payable from a director of the Company into Preferred Stock.

The holders of the Class A Preferred, Class B Preferred, Class C Preferred, Class D Preferred and Class E Preferred (collectively, "Preferred Stock") are entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board, out of the assets of the Company legally available for payment thereof, cumulative cash dividends calculated based on the $10.00 per share stated value of the Preferred Stock. The per annum dividend rate is eight percent (8%) for the Class A Preferred and ten percent (10%) for the Class B Preferred and Class C Preferred, fourteen percent (14%) for the Class D Preferred and fifteen percent (15%) in the Class E Preferred, to be paid in kind. Dividends on the Class A Preferred, Class C Preferred and Class D Preferred are payable quarterly on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year. Dividends on the Class B Preferred are payable monthly on the first day of each calendar month. Dividends on the Preferred Stock accrue cumulatively on a daily basis until the Preferred Stock is redeemed or converted.

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vicom, the holders of the Class A Preferred and Class B Preferred will be entitled to receive a liquidation preference of $10.50 per share, and the holders of the Class C Preferred, Class D Preferred and Class E Preferred will be entitled to receive a liquidation preference of $10.00 per share, each subject to adjustment. Any liquidation preference shall be payable out of any net assets of Vicom remaining after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of Vicom.

Vicom may redeem the Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, at a redemption price of $10.50 per share for the Class A Preferred and the Class B Preferred and $10.00 per share for the Class C Preferred, Class D Preferred and Class E Preferred (subject to adjustment, plus any earned and unpaid dividends) on not less than thirty days' notice to the holders of the Preferred Stock, provided that the closing bid price of the common stock exceeds $4.00 per share (subject to adjustment) for any ten consecutive trading days prior to such notice. Upon Vicom's call for redemption, the holders of the Preferred Stock called for redemption will have the option to convert each share of Preferred Stock into shares of common stock until the close of business on the date fixed for redemption, unless extended by Vicom in its sole discretion. Preferred Stock not so converted will be redeemed. No holder of Preferred Stock can require Vicom to redeem his or her shares.
