PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 10-KSB, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets If Needed.)

The Registrant was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending March 31, 2005 on a timely basis because the Registrant had not finalized all information necessary to complete its Quarterly Report. The Registrant was unable to finalize such information because, among other things, (i) the Registrant operated with a significantly reduced number of personnel in 2004, (ii) the Registrant's Controller resigned in the fourth quarter in 2004 leaving the Registrant's Chief Financial Officer as the only accounting professional employed by the Registrant and (iii) the Registrant used a considerable amount of its resources toward compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the related rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, drawing resources away from the completion of its Quarterly Report. The Registrant is working diligently to obtain the necessary information and intends to file its Form 10-Q as soon as possible.

[X] Yes [] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the continuation of extensive cost cutting measures initiated by the Registrant in 2003 and continuing into 2004, the net loss of the Registrant for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 has been reduced to approximately half of the net loss for the prior year quarter. This reduction is due primarily to a significant reduction in related party and other research and development expenses, a reduction in interest expense, a reduction in general and administrative expense, and the realization of technology fee revenues during the quarter ended March 31, 2005.
