Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

Conversion Services International, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that it received notice from the Staff of the American Stock Exchange indicating that the Company no longer complies with the Exchange’s continued listing standards due to the Company’s inability to maintain compliance with certain AMEX continued listing requirements, as set forth in Sections 1003(a)(i), 1003(a)(ii) and 1003(a)(iv) of the AMEX Company Guide and its plan of compliance submitted in July 2006, and that its securities are subject to be delisted from the Exchange. The Company received notice on June 29, 2006, from the Staff indicating that the Company was below certain of the Exchange’s continued listing standards. The Company was afforded the opportunity to submit a plan of compliance to the Exchange; and on July 31, 2006, the Company presented its plan to the Exchange. On September 26, 2006, the Exchange notified the Company that it accepted the Company’s plan of compliance and granted the Company an extension until December 28, 2007, to regain compliance with the continued listing standards.

The Company plans to file an appeal of this determination and to request a hearing before a committee of the Exchange. Once filed, the appeal automatically stays the delisting of the Company’s common stock pending a hearing date and the Exchange’s decision. The time and place of such a hearing will be determined by the Exchange. There can be no assurance that the Company’s request for continued listing will be granted. If the committee does not grant the relief sought by the Company, its securities will be delisted from the Exchange and may continue to be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board.

The Company disclosed its previous AMEX notice and circumstances relating to its current listing deficiency in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 7, 2006. Readers are urged to read carefully the Company’s public announcements and regulatory filings with the SEC, including the Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC dated July 7, 2006, and September 27, 2006.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Set forth below is a list of Exhibits included as part of this Current Report.

99.1 Press Release, dated January 29, 2007

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain, among other things, certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements with respect to the Company’s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements identified by words such as “may”, “could”, “would”, “should”, “believes”, “expects”, “anticipates”, “estimates”, “intends”, “plans” or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the Company’s management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors (many of which are beyond the Company's control).
