Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As of December 7, 2012, Hurco Companies, Inc. entered into a new credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in its capacity as administrative agent and the financial institutions party thereto as lenders to replace our prior credit agreement, dated as of December 7, 2007. Under the prior credit agreement, we had a $15.0 million unsecured revolving credit facility, a letter of credit facility with a maximum amount for outstanding letters of credit of $3 million and a back up letter of credit facility in the amount of 100 million Taiwan Dollars or approximately $3.5 million. Pursuant to the new credit agreement, the lenders will provide us with a $12.5 million unsecured revolving credit and letter of credit facility, with a $3.0 million maximum amount for outstanding letters of credit. The scheduled maturity date of the new credit agreement is December 7, 2014. Given our current cash position, management determined that a $12.5 million revolving credit facility was sufficient to meet our needs during the term of the new credit agreement; moreover the reduction in the size of the line from the prior credit agreement facilitated more favorable pricing and covenants.

Borrowings under the new credit agreement will bear interest at a LIBOR-based rate or a floating rate of 1% above the prevailing prime rate. The floating rate will not be less than the greatest of (a) a one month LIBOR-based rate plus 1.00% per annum, (b) the federal funds effective rate plus 0.50% per annum, and (c) the prevailing prime rate. The rate we must pay for that portion of the new credit agreement which is not utilized is 0.05% per annum.

The new credit agreement permits us to make investments in subsidiaries of up to $5.0 million, an increase from the amount permitted in the prior credit agreement. Further, the new credit agreement replaces the financial covenants that were in the prior credit agreement with a minimum working capital requirement of $90.0 million and a minimum tangible net worth requirement of $120.0 million. The new credit agreement will permit us to pay cash dividends in an amount not to exceed $1.0 million per calendar year so long as we are not in default before and after giving effect to such dividends. The remaining covenants in the new credit agreement are substantially the same as those that were in the prior credit agreement.

In addition, Hurco Europe Limited ("Hurco Europe"), our wholly owned subsidiary, amended and restated its facility agreement, dated as of December 7, 2007, with a London Branch of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. The new U.K. facility provides a £1.0 million revolving line of credit with a scheduled maturity date of December 7, 2014. Borrowings under this new U.K. facility will bear interest at a LIBOR-based rate plus 1.00%. We have guaranteed the obligation of Hurco Europe. The other material terms of the U.K. Facility are unchanged.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the new credit agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
