EXPLANATORY NOTE

This amendment to current report on Form 8-K/A (the “Amendment”) amends the current report on Form 8-K, dated May 11, 2015, filed by Navidea Biopharmaceuticals, Inc. with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on May 15, 2015 (the “Original Form 8-K”). The sole purpose of this Amendment is to file as an exhibit the CRG Loan Agreement described in the Original Form 8-K, which is attached to this Amendment and incorporated by reference into the Original Form 8-K. No other changes have been made to the Original Form 8-K.

Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 11, 2014, Navidea Biopharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) and its subsidiary Macrophage Therapeutics, Inc., as guarantor, executed a Term Loan Agreement (the “CRG Loan Agreement”) with Capital Royalty Partners II L.P. in its capacity as a lender and as control agent for other affiliated lenders party to the CRG Loan Agreement (collectively, the “Lenders”) in which the Lenders agreed to make a term loan to the Company in the aggregate principal amount of $50,000,000 (the “Term Loan”), with an additional $10 million in loans to be made available upon the satisfaction of certain conditions stated in the CRG Loan Agreement. Closing and funding of the Term Loan occurred on May 15, 2014 (the “Effective Date”). The principal balance of the Term Loan will bear interest from the Effective Date at a per annum rate of interest equal to 14.0%. The Company will make quarterly payments of interest only in arrears commencing on June 30, 2015. Commencing on the fourth anniversary of the first quarterly interest payment date, the Company has the option of paying (i) 10.00% of the 14.00% per annum interest in cash and (ii) 4.00% of the per annum interest as compounded interest, added to the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loan. Principal is repayable in eight equal quarterly installments during the final two years of the term.

The Company may voluntarily prepay the Term Loan in full, upon fifteen business days’ prior written notice to Lenders, with a prepayment premium beginning at 5% and declining by 1% annually thereafter, with no premium being payable if prepayment occurs after the fifth year of the term. The Term Loan requires the payment on the borrowing date of a financing fee of 1.25% of the amount borrowed, and facility fee payable at the end of the term or when the loan is repaid in full equal to 2% of the principal amount.

The CRG Loan Agreement requires that the Company adhere to certain affirmative and negative covenants, including, without limitation, financial reporting requirements and a prohibition against the incurrence of indebtedness, or creation of additional liens, other than as specifically permitted by the terms of the CRG Loan Agreement. The Lenders may accelerate the payment terms of the CRG Loan Agreement upon the occurrence of certain events of default set forth therein, which include, without limitation, the failure of the Company to make timely payments of amounts due under the CRG Loan Agreement, the failure of the Company to adhere to the covenants set forth in the CRG Loan Agreement, and the insolvency of the Company. The covenants of the CRG Loan Agreement include a covenant that the Company shall have EBITDA of no less than $5 million in each calendar year during the term or revenues from sales of Lymphoseek® in each calendar year during the term of at least $11 million in 2015, with the target minimum revenue increasing in each year thereafter until reaching of $45 million in 2020, which will also be the target minimum revenue in each calendar year thereafter during the term. If the Company fails to meet the applicable EBITDA or minimum revenue target in any calendar year, the Loan Agreement provides the Company a cure right if it raises 2.5 times the EBITDA or revenue shortfall in equity or subordinated debt and deposits such funds in a separate blocked account. Finally, the events of default under the CRG Loan Agreement include a failure of Platinum-Montaur Life Sciences, LLC (“Platinum”) to perform its funding obligations under the Platinum Loan Agreement (as defined below) at any time as to which the Company had negative EBITDA for the most recent fiscal quarter, as a result either of Platinum’s repudiation of its obligations under the Platinum Loan Agreement, or the occurrence of an insolvency event with respect to Platinum.

Pursuant to the terms of a Security Agreement with the Lenders, the Company granted the Lenders a security interest in the Company’s tangible or intangible personal property of every kind, including, without limitation, all accounts, chattel paper, equipment, inventory, contract rights or rights to payment of money, general intangibles, commercial tort claims, documents, instruments (including any promissory notes), cash, deposit accounts, fixtures, letters of credit rights, intellectual property, securities, and all other investment property, and any and all claims, rights and interests in any of the above (collectively, the “Collateral”). The Collateral does not include capital stock of any foreign subsidiary of the Company in excess of 65% of the voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, if a pledge of more than 65% of the capital stock of such subsidiary creates an adverse tax consequence to the Company under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

In connection with the Company entering into the CRG Loan Agreement, the Company and Platinum entered into a Third Amendment (the “Third Platinum Amendment”) to the Loan Agreement between the Company and Platinum, dated July 25, 2012, as amended June 25, 2013 and March 4, 2014 (the “Platinum Loan Agreement”). Platinum and the Lenders also entered into a Subordination Agreement (the “Subordination Agreement”), which the Company consented to and acknowledged, providing for the subordination of the Company’s indebtedness to Platinum under the Platinum Loan Agreement to the Company’s indebtedness under the CRG Loan Agreement, among other customary terms and conditions. Contemporaneously with the execution of the Third Platinum Amendment, the Company delivered a Third Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated the Effective Date (the “Third Amended Platinum Note”), which amends and restates the Second Amended Promissory Note, dated March 4, 2014, made by the Company in favor of Platinum in the original principal amount of up to $35,000,000. Among other things, the Third Platinum Amendment (i) extends the term of the Platinum Loan Agreement until a date six months following the maturity date or earlier repayment of the Term Loan, and (ii) changes the provisions of the Platinum Loan Agreement governing Platinum’s right to convert advances into common stock of the Company. The Platinum Loan Agreement formerly provided for the optional conversion of advances made on or after June 25, 2013 beginning two (2) years from the date of the advance at conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) 90% of the lowest volume weighted average price for the 10 trading days preceding the date of such conversion request, or (ii) the average volume weighted average trading price for the 10 trading days preceding the date of such conversion request. Under the Third Platinum Amendment, the conversion right now applies to all advances made under the Platinum Loan Agreement, but not until such time as the average daily volume weighted average price of the Company’s common stock for the ten (10) preceding trading days exceeds $2.53 per share. As of the Effective Date, the net advances to the Company under the Platinum Loan Agreement were $7.7 million.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Loan Agreement, the Security Agreement, the Subordination Agreement, the Third Platinum Amendment, and the Third Amended Platinum Note, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Loan Agreement, Subordination Agreement, Security Agreement, Third Platinum Amendment, and Third Amended Platinum Note, copies of which are attached hereto as exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, and 10.5, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference..

On the Effective Date, in connection with the consummation of the Loan Agreement, the Company repaid all amounts outstanding under the Loan and Security Agreement with Oxford Finance, LLC (the “Oxford Loan Agreement”) in the amount of $31.6 million, which included payments of $289,000 as a pre-payment fee and $2,385,000 as an end-of-term final payment fee.
