On December 23, 2016, Fuwei Films (Holdings) Co., Ltd., a company incorporated in the Cayman Islands (the “Company”) received a letter (the “Letter”) from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) informing the Company that its bid price deficiency has been cured, and that the Company is in compliance with all applicable listing standards of NASDAQ and as a result, the scheduled hearing before the Hearings Panel at NASDAQ has been cancelled. The Letter further stated that the Company’s ordinary shares will continue to be listed and trade on The Nasdaq Capital Market.

On November 25, 2015, the Staff notified the Company that the bid price of its ordinary shares had closed at less than $1 per share over the previous 30 consecutive business days, and, as a result, did not comply with Listing Rule 5550(a)(2). Therefore, in accordance with Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company was provided 180 calendar days, or until May 23, 2016, to regain compliance with the Listing Rule. On May 24, 2016, the Staff determined that the Company was eligible for an additional 180 days, or until November 21, 2016, to regain compliance.

In a Determination Letter dated November 22, 2016, the Staff notified the Company that it had not regained compliance with the NASDAQ listing rules and that its ordinary shares would be suspended from The Nasdaq Capital Market on December 1, 2016, unless the Company requested a hearing. On November 28, 2016, the Company requested an oral hearing before a Nasdaq Hearings Panel.

On December 6, 2016, the Company executed a reverse stock split of its ordinary shares and as of December 23, 2016, the bid price of the Company’s ordinary shares has closed above the $1.00 minimum requirement for over 10 consecutive trading days. As such, the Company now meets all continued listing standards for The Nasdaq Capital Market. Therefore, the Staff recommended that the bid price deficiency be considered moot and that the Company be removed from the hearings process.
