Item 1.01. Entry Into Material Definitive Agreement.

Lumber Liquidators Holdings, Inc. (“Holdings”) previously disclosed that, on October 23, 2017, Lumber Liquidators, Inc. (the “Company”), who is a defendant in two multi-district litigations captioned In re: Lumber Liquidators Chinese-Manufactured Flooring Products Marketing, Sales, Practices and Products Liability Litigation (the “Formaldehyde MDL”) and In Re: Lumber Liquidators Chinese-Manufactured Laminate Flooring Durability Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (the “Durability MDL”), entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the “MOU”) with the plaintiffs in the Formaldehyde MDL and the Durability MDL (collectively, the “Plaintiffs”) to memorialize an agreement in principle to settle the Formaldehyde MDL and the Durability MDL.

On March 15, 2018, the Company entered into a definitive settlement agreement with the Plaintiffs consistent with the terms of the MOU (the “Settlement Agreement”). The Settlement Agreement is subject to approval by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (the “Virginia Court”) and other contingencies. Therefore, there can be no assurance that a settlement will be finalized by the parties and approved by the Virginia Court or as to the ultimate outcome of the Formaldehyde MDL or the Durability MDL. The execution of the Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission by the Company of any fault or liability and the Company does not admit fault or liability.

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Company will contribute $22 million in cash and provide $14 million in store-credit vouchers for an aggregate settlement of $36 million (collectively, the “Settlement Fund”) to settle all claims brought on behalf of purchasers of the Company’s Chinese-manufactured laminate flooring (the “Product”) sold by the Company between January 1, 2009 and May 31, 2015 (the “Class Period”). Although Holdings believes that its cash flow from operations, together with existing liquidity sources, is sufficient to fund the cash payment, it may elect to fund the cash payment through a combination of cash and/or common stock.

The Settlement Fund will be used to pay notice and administrative fees relating to the class actions and to compensate individuals who purchased the Product from the Company during the Class Period. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the individuals entitled to compensation are divided into two classes, one of which is entitled to an election for either cash compensation or store-credit vouchers and the other of which is entitled to only cash compensation. The Settlement Fund will be funded by the Company in three installments: (i) the first installment of $500,000 will be paid to the fund within five days of the Virginia Court’s preliminary approval of the settlement and will be used to pay the notice and settlement administrator’s fees; (ii) the second installment of $21.5 million will be paid to the fund within thirty days of the Virginia Court’s final approval order of the Settlement Agreement and the dismissal of the Formaldehyde MDL and Durability MDL; and (iii) the $14 million in product vouchers will be issued by the settlement administrator and the cash impact will be recognized by the Company as such product vouchers are redeemed at the Company’s stores and the Company replenishes inventory. The Company will pay the lead plaintiffs’ in the Formaldehyde MDL and Durability MDL legal fees and costs not to exceed 33.33% of the Settlement Fund, and which fees are included in the $22 million cash component of the fund obligation.

Holdings previously disclosed in its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 that it had recognized (i) a charge to earnings of $18 million in its results of operations (within selling, general and administrative expenses) for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and (ii) an additional charge to earnings of $18 million within selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2017. This resulted in an aggregate $36 million liability on its balance sheet related to this settlement as of December 31, 2017.
