Culp, Inc. (the "Company") previously disclosed a contract to sell and lease back its headquarters building in High Point, North Carolina, at a purchase price of $7,350,000 (subsequently amended to $7,000,000), with a five year lease at a rental rate of $56,800 per month. As previously disclosed, the contract was subject to the ability of the purchaser (Schwartz Properties, L.L.C.) to obtain financing and further subject to a 90-day due diligence period during which the purchaser could terminate the agreement for any reason. On May 12, 2008, the Company was notified that the purchaser was exercising its right to terminate the contract. The Company was informed that the purchaser was not able to obtain financing acceptable to it for the transaction described in the contract. The Company will continue to evaluate its alternatives for its headquarters building, including continuing to market the building for sale.
