Banco Bradesco S.A.

Banco Mercantil de São Paulo S.A.

Boavista S.A. Distribuidora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários

Relevant Fact

In compliance with the provision of CVM Instruction 319, of December 3, 1999, Banco Bradesco S.A. (Bradesco), CNPJ 60.746.948/0001-12, Banco Mercantil de São Paulo S.A. (Mercantil), CNPJ 61.065.421/0001-95 and Boavista S.A. Distribuidora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários (Boavista), CNPJ 33.932.138/0001-88, inform the market, their stockholders and clients that in Special Stockholders Meetings to be held on March 31, 2003, the proposal for Boavista incorporation by Mercantil and subsequently the Incorporation of Stocks of the Mercantil Minority Stockholders by Bradesco will be voted, in accordance with provisions in Articles 224, 225, 227, 252 and 264 of Law 6.404/76, as per the Instruments of Protocol and Justification signed, on this date, by the aforementioned companies.

The operations, once authorized, will be characterized as follows:

- 1) a) aim to enable the Mercantil minority stockholders to directly participate in the Corporate Capital of Bradesco, Mercantil's indirect controller;
b) aim to promote the corporate reorganization, rationalizing and consequently reducing operational, administrative and legal costs, as a result of Boavista being a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bradesco, and Mercantil being controlled directly by Boavista, converting Mercantil into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bradesco;
- 2) Cost of approximately R$2 million;
- 3) Effective on March 31, 2003;
- 4) Based on the balance sheets of the each company as of January 31, 2003, the following Stockholders' Equity were determined: Mercantil - R$746,795,105.19; Boavista - R$1,265,739,678.95; and Bradesco R$10,913,777,925.36;
- 5) Considering that after acquiring the control of Mercantil in March 2002, Bradesco made accounting adjustments to Mercantil to adapt the latter to its practices, which resulted in a reduction to Mercantil's Stockholders' Equity, the consolidated financial statements of Mercantil and Bradesco at December 31, 2001, duly audited and published, will be adopted as a basis for calculating the ratio for the stock exchange and consequent capital increase of Bradesco. These criteria are more fair and compatible with the acquisition cost of the controlling interest in Mercantil;
- 6) The stocks to be issued by Bradesco and attributed to the minority stockholders of Mercantil shall have the following rights and advantages: Common - voting rights; Preferred - no voting rights, priority in Corporate Capital redemption in the event of the Company's liquidation; dividends and/or interest on own capital 10% (ten percent) higher than those assigned to common stocks;
- 7) There will be no capital increase nor issue of new stocks in Mercantil, as a result of the incorporation of Boavista, with the title to the stocks held by Boavista in Mercantil's Corporate Capital being transferred to Bradesco;

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

- 8) Given that the book value of Bradesco and Mercantil stocks were R$0.00678072 and R$0.16236021, respectively, at December 31, 2001, the ratio of stock exchange on the incorporation of Mercantil's stocks by Bradesco will be 23.94439086 stocks issued by Bradesco for each of Mercantil's stock, being 12.06279162 common and 11.88159924 preferred, in order to maintain the same proportion between common and preferred stocks currently existing for Bradesco's Corporate Capital;
- 9) For the purposes provided in Article 264 of law 6.404/76, it should be noted that, in the event the stock exchange ratio for Mercantil minority stockholders had been established based on the Stockholders' Equity valued at market prices for both companies on January 31, 2003, each stock in Mercantil would be entitled to 11.337177 stocks of Bradesco;
- 10) Once the operations have been approved;
  - a) there will be an increase Bradesco's Company Capital by the amount of R$158,734,686.51 (one hundred fifty eight million, seven hundred thirty four thousand, six hundred eighty six reais and fifty one cents), through the issuance of 20,767,712,349 (twenty billion, seven hundred sixty seven million, seven hundred twelve thousand, three hundred forty nine) new nominative book-entry stocks, with no par value, being 10,462,433,059 (ten billion, four hundred sixty two million, four hundred and thirty three thousand, and fifty nine) common and 10,305,279,290 (ten billion, three hundred and five million, two hundred and seventy nine thousand, two hundred and ninety) preferred stocks, to be attributed to the minority stockholders of Mercantil in the proportion established in item 8 above, with the consequent amendment of the main provision of Article 6 of Bradesco's Corporate Bylaws, which will read as follows: "Art. 6) The Company Capital is R$6,258,734,686.51 (six billion, two hundred fifty eight million, seven hundred thirty four thousand, six hundred eight six reais and fifty one cents), consisting of 1,515,448,014,186 (one trillion, five hundred fifteen billion, four hundred forty eight million, fourteen thousand, one hundred eighty six) nominative book-entry stock, with no par value, of which 763,457,868,465 (seven hundred sixty three billion, four hundred fifty seven million, eight hundred sixty eight thousand, four hundred sixty five) are common stock and 751,990,145,721 (seven hundred fifty one billion, nine hundred ninety million, one hundred forty five thousand, seven hundred twenty one) are preferred stock with no voting rights, but with priority in the redemption of the Company Capital, in the event of the Company's liquidation and with all the rights and advantages granted to common stock, as well as dividends ten percent (10%) higher than those assigned to common stock";
  - b) Mercantil shall be transformed into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bradesco, with its Bylaws amended and subsequently consolidated highlighting the following alterations: I. Conversion of preferred stocks into common stocks; II. Dissolution of the Board of Directors; III. Alteration in the composition of the Board of Executive Officers, reducing the minimum and maximum number of Officers;
- 11) The stock fractions issued by Bradesco, as a result of the capital increase, which are not attributed to the stockholders of Mercantil, shall be grouped and sold on the São Paulo Stock Market Exchange (Bovespa) at market price, and the value earned shall be credited to the Capital Reserve account in Bradesco, to be used for a future capital increase benefiting all of the stockholders indiscriminately, given the high operational cost of such distribution and the immaterial value that these leftovers would represent for each stockholder;

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

- 12) There will be no dissent right on the incorporation of Boavista, since Bradesco is its sole stockholder;
- 13) Upon the incorporation of the stocks of Mercantil's minority stockholders by Bradesco, the common and preferred stockholders of Mercantil and the preferred stockholders of Bradesco, under the terms of Articles 137 and 230 of Law 6.404/76, can exercise their dissent right from the companies, by means of book value reimbursement of R$116.51772 per lot of one thousand stocks to the stockholders of Mercantil, and R$7.64334 per lot of one thousand stocks to the stockholders of Bradesco;
- 14) The stocks of Bradesco, to be attributed to the stockholders of Mercantil shall be entitled to the full dividends and/or interest on own capital declared as from the month in which the Central Bank of Brazil approves the respective process. They shall also be entitled, in full, to any advantages attributed to the other stocks as from the month of the aforementioned approval;
- 15) The valuations of the Companies' Stockholders' Equity were performed as follows:
  - a) the book value, based on the companies' balance sheets as of January 31, 2003, duly audited by KPMG Auditores Independentes;
  - b) the market value for Bradesco, by Grant Thornton Auditores Independentes and for Mercantil and Boavista, by BES Investimento do Brasil S.A. - Investment Bank;
  - c) the economic value for Mercantil, by BES Investimento do Brasil S.A. - Investment Bank;
- 16) The above mentioned companies in charge of the Appraisal Reports declare that they do not have any relationship or conflict of interest, current or potential, with the controlling or minority stockholders of Bradesco, Mercantil and Boavista, or relatively to any other entity part of the operation, and its respective partners, including the actual operation object of this Relevant Fact;
- 17) The operations will be submitted for approval of the Central Bank of Brazil;
- 18) The proposals of the Board of Directors and the Board of Executive Officers of the Companies, the Instruments of Protocol and Justification, the Mercantil Bylaws project, Bradesco and Mercantil Balance Sheets as of January 31, 2003, and December 31, 2001, the Appraisal Reports issued by KPMG Auditores Independentes, Grant Thornton Auditores Independentes and BES Investimento do Brasil S.A. - Investment Bank, are available(1) to interested parties at the Company's head office and at Banco Bradesco S.A's Stocks and Custody Department, Depository Financial Institution, at Cidade de Deus, Prédio Amarelo, Vila Yara, Osasco, São Paulo, Brazil.

Proposals of the Board of Directors to be submitted to the Stockholders of Banco Bradesco S.A. (Bradesco), in the Special Stockholders' Meeting of March 31, 2003, regarding stock incorporation of the Minority Stockholders of Banco Mercantil de São Paulo S.A. (Mercantil) by Bradesco.

With the objective to enable the Mercantil minority stockholders to directly participate in the Corporate Capital of Bradesco, Mercantil's indirect controller, and aiming to promote the corporate reorganization, rationalizing and consequently reducing operational, administrative and legal costs, we propose the incorporation of the stocks held by the Mercantil minority stockholders, which will then be its sole stockholder, converting Mercantil into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bradesco

The operation for the minority stockholders incorporation, once authorized, will be characterized as follows and will be effective on March 31, 2003:

1. Based on the balance sheets of the each company as of January 31, 2003, the following Stockholders' Equity were determined: Mercantil - R$746,795,105.19; and Bradesco R$10,913,777,925.36;
2. Considering that after acquiring the control of Mercantil in March 2002, Bradesco made accounting adjustments to Mercantil to adapt the latter to its practices, which resulted in a reduction to Mercantil's Stockholders' Equity, the consolidated financial statements of Mercantil and Bradesco at December 31, 2001, duly audited and published, will be adopted as a basis for calculating the ratio for the stock exchange and consequent capital increase of Bradesco. 4. Given that the book value of Bradesco and Mercantil stocks were R$0.00678072 and R$0.16236021, respectively, at December 31, 2001, the ratio of stock exchange on the incorporation of Mercantil's stocks by Bradesco will be 23.94439086 stocks issued by Bradesco for each of Mercantil's stock, being 12.06279162 common and 11.88159924 preferred, in order to maintain the same proportion between common and preferred stocks currently existing for Bradesco's Corporate Capital;
5. For the purposes provided in Article 264 of law 6.404/76, it should be noted that, in the event the stock exchange ratio for Mercantil minority stockholders had been established based on the Stockholders' Equity valued at market prices for both companies on January 31, 2003, each stock in Mercantil would be entitled to 11.337177 stocks of Bradesco;
6. Once the operation has been approved:
  - a) there will be an increase Bradesco's Company Capital by the amount of R$158,734,686.51 (one hundred fifty eight million, seven hundred thirty four thousand, six hundred eighty six reais and fifty one cents), through the issuance of 20,767,712,349 (twenty billion, seven hundred sixty seven million, seven hundred twelve thousand, three hundred forty nine) new nominative book-entry stocks, with no par value, being 10,462,433,059 (ten billion, four hundred sixty two million, four hundred and thirty three thousand, and fifty nine) common and 10,305,279,290 (ten billion, three hundred and five million, two hundred and seventy nine thousand, two hundred and ninety) preferred stocks, to be attributed to the minority stockholders of Mercantil in the proportion established in item 4 above, with the consequent amendment of the main provision of Article 6 of Bradesco's Corporate Bylaws, which will read as follows: "Art. 6) The Company Capital is R$6,258,734,686.51 (six billion, two hundred fifty eight million, seven hundred thirty four thousand, six hundred eight six reais and fifty one cents), consisting of 1,515,448,014,186 (one trillion, five hundred fifteen billion, four hundred forty eight million, fourteen thousand, one hundred eighty six) nominative book-entry stock, with no par value, of which 763,457,868,465 (seven hundred sixty three billion, four hundred fifty seven million, eight hundred sixty eight thousand, four hundred sixty five) are common stock and 751,990,145,721 (seven hundred fifty one billion, nine hundred ninety million, one hundred forty five thousand, seven hundred twenty one) are preferred stock with no voting rights, but with priority in the redemption of the Company Capital, in the event of the Company's liquidation and with all the rights and advantages granted to common stock, as well as dividends ten percent (10%) higher than those assigned to common stock";
  - b) Mercantil shall be transformed into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bradesco, with its Bylaws amended and subsequently consolidated highlighting the following alterations: I. Conversion of preferred stocks into common stocks; II. Dissolution of the Board of Directors; III. Alteration in the composition of the Board of Executive Officers, reducing the minimum and maximum number of Officers;
7. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
