Item 8.01. Other Events

On March 12, 2008, Madison Gas and Electric Company (MGE) received a notice expressing the intent of the Sierra Club to file a federal Clean Air Act suit against the owners of the Columbia Energy Center (Columbia) as a result of an alleged failure to file a timely application for a renewal of an air permit for Columbia. The notice indicates an intent to seek penalties for the alleged violations of the Clean Air Act as well as injunctive relief and damages. Columbia is a coal-fired generating facility located in Portage, Wisconsin. It is owned by Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, Wisconsin Power and Light Company (WPL), and MGE, and WPL is the party contractually responsible for operating the generating plant. MGE has a 22% ownership interest in Columbia which accounts for 29% (225 MW) of MGE's net generating capability.

WPL has informed MGE that it is reviewing the matter. WPL has publicly stated that it does not anticipate any material impacts to ongoing operations at Columbia. MGE will continue to monitor the situation.
