INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01

Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 28, 2012, Northwest Bancorporation, Inc. (the "Company"), the parent company of Inland Northwest Bank (the "Bank"), entered into stock purchase agreements (the "Stock Purchase Agreements") with a total of six accredited investors pursuant to which the Company is expected to issue common stock and preferred stock in a private placement offering (the "Offering"). Pursuant to the terms of the respective Stock Purchase Agreements, the Company expects to raise approximately $3.9 million by issuing 832,713 shares of common stock. In addition, the Company also expects to raise additional funds by issuing shares of convertible series C preferred stock (the "Series C Preferred Stock"), and shares of series D preferred stock (the "Series D Preferred Stock") to purchasers in the Offering. The issuance of Series C Preferred Stock and Series D Preferred Stock remains subject to approval by the Company's Board of Directors of an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation. The shares of common stock will be sold at a price of $4.68 per share, which represents a discount of 15% to the average closing price of the Company's common stock as reported over the ten trading days prior to the date of the Stock Purchase Agreements.

The Company plans to use proceeds of the Offering to (i) bid on the Company's preferred stock currently held by the U.S. Department of Treasury ("Treasury") pursuant to the TARP Capital Purchase Program that is expected to be auctioned by Treasury in early 2013, (ii) repay the accrued interest on the Company's outstanding trust preferred securities, (iii) improve the Company's ability to serve as a source of strength for the Bank, and (iv) general corporate purposes of the Company. The consummation of the Offering remains subject to receipt of regulatory approval, approval by Treasury of the Company's bid, amendment of the Company's articles of incorporation and customary closing terms and conditions. Closing of the Offering is not contingent on receipt of any shareholder approvals.

Following the consummation of the Offering, Harlan D. Douglass, current holder of 13.97% of the Company's outstanding common stock and a member of the Company's board of directors, would potentially hold up to 35.44% of the voting stock in the Company, assuming all of his convertible preferred stock is converted to common stock.

Description of the Series C and Series D Preferred Stock

Series C Preferred Stock. After five years, each share of Series C Preferred Stock will be convertible, at the sole discretion of the holder of such shares, into a maximum of up to 863,788 shares of common stock. Dividends on the Series C Preferred Stock will be payable quarterly in arrears, subject to board and regulatory approval, at an annual rate of 7% and no dividends shall be payable on any junior securities or parity securities unless an identical dividend is payable at the same time on the Series C Preferred Stock. The holders of the Series C Preferred Stock generally would not have voting rights, except, with regard to certain issuances of additional shares of the Company's capital stock. Holders of Series C Preferred Stock would also have limited voting rights with regard to changes that adversely affect the terms of the Series C Preferred Stock and with regard to a share exchange or other corporate restructuring, if such transaction would result in materially less favorable terms for the Series C Preferred Stock.

Series D Preferred Stock. The Series D Preferred Stock is not convertible into common stock. Dividends on the Series D Preferred Stock will be payable quarterly in arrears, subject to Board and regulatory approval, at an annual rate of 5.5% and no dividends would be payable on any junior securities or parity securities unless an identical dividend is payable at the same time on the Series D Preferred Stock. The holders of the Series D Preferred Stock generally do not have voting rights, except the holders of Series D Preferred Stock have limited voting rights with regard to changes that adversely affect the terms of the Series D Preferred Stock, respectively, and with regard to a share exchange or other corporate restructuring, if such transaction would result in materially less favorable terms for the Series D Preferred Stock.
