Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 16, 2009, Hooker Furniture Corporation announced that Paul A. Huckfeldt will become the Company's Corporate Controller and principal accounting officer, effective January 1, 2010. Mr. Huckfeldt, 52, is a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Georgia. He has over 30 years of experience in accounting, ranging from privately held concerns to large, global, publicly traded companies. Mr. Huckfeldt joined Hooker in April 2004 and led the company's Sarbanes-Oxley implementation and subsequent compliance efforts through February 2006. He was promoted to Manager of Operations Accounting in March of 2006 and has managed essentially all of the Company's corporate accounting functions during his tenure in that role.

"We're pleased to announce Paul's promotion," remarked E. Larry Ryder, Executive Vice-President of Finance and Administration. "He has distinguished himself at Hooker and has earned the respect and confidence of both management and the board of directors. We look forward to his continued significant contributions in his new role," Ryder concluded.
