FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

19 July 2004

Prudential UK and Pearl enter into ANNUITY AGREEMENT

Prudential UK and Pearl(1) have today announced an agreement, which will give Pearl's personal pension(2) customers access to a Prudential annuity when their plan matures. The agreement will take effect from September 2004 and will run for five years.

On maturity of their personal pensions, Pearl customers will be offered an annuity from Prudential, while retaining the right to select the Open Market Option should they wish to follow this route.

Edgar Filing: PRUDENTIAL PLC - Form 6-K

Pearl's personal pension customers will benefit from the same annuity rates that Prudential offers via Independent Financial Advisers. They will also benefit from Prudential's financial strength and expert administration processes.

Isabel Hudson, Director of Corporate Partnerships, Prudential UK said: "This agreement demonstrates the strength of the Prudential brand in the market and marks a step change in our strategy to deliver key partnerships. We continue to develop other opportunities over the coming months."

Notes to Editors:

1. Pearl is one of four main life companies, all closed to new business forming HHG PLC's Life Services division which looks after 5 million policies. Approximately 5000 of these policies per year will be maturing Pearl personal pensions with access to a Prudential branded annuity.

2. This agreement covers all pensions written from 1 July 1988 under personal pension schemes administered by Pearl Assurance PLC and Pearl Assurance (Unit Linked Pensions) Ltd. It does not cover any other Pearl pension product nor any pension product issued by NPI or London Life.

3. This agreement builds on Prudential's annuity reinsurance agreement with Zurich Financial Services.
