Barclays Announces Private Banking Joint Venture In Japan

Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") announces the signing of a Joint Venture Agreement ("JV") with Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation ("SMBC") and Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. ("Nikko"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SMBC, to provide wealth management services to high net worth individuals in Japan.

The JV has been set up as 'SMBC Barclays Wealth Division' operating within Nikko, and leverages Nikko's operational platform as well as related service support.

The JV is co-headed by Mr. Yukihide Sakai (seconded by Barclays)

Mr. Hisatsugu Yoshida (seconded by SMBC) and Mr. Kiyokazu Watanabe (from Nikko). The three JV Heads will be jointly responsible for the development and marketing of the private banking services of the JV, and the growth strategy of the business.

The JV is staffed by professionals from Barclays, SMBC and Nikko across a wide range of roles in sales, marketing, investment services and product development, as well as infrastructure and operational support. Initially, the JV will concentrate on the provision of private banking services for high net worth individuals in Osaka, Tokyo and Yokohama, with gradual expansion to other areas.

This is a new business venture. No consideration is being paid and no assets are being transferred. Barclays is providing seconded employees and operational support.

Mr. Didier von Daeniken, Chief Executive of Barclays Wealth, Asia Pacific, said: "In SMBC, we are delighted to have a partner with the local distribution network which gives the JV unparalleled access to the Japanese high net worth client base. Coupled with the intellectual capital and investment expertise of Barclays Wealth and the platform excellence of Nikko, I am confident that the JV will be able to provide comprehensive advice and a broad range of investment solutions tailored to the complex needs of SMBC's high net worth clients."

Forward-looking statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of the Group's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance. Barclays cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as "may", "will", "seek", "continue", "aim", "anticipate", "target", "expect", "estimate", "intend", "plan", "goal", "believe" or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the Group's future financial position, income growth, assets, impairment charges, business strategy, capital ratios, leverage, payment of dividends, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations and other statements that are not historical fact. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, the effects of continued volatility in credit markets, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, effects of changes in valuation of credit market exposures, changes in valuation of issued notes, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, the further development of standards and interpretations under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) applicable to past, current and future periods, evolving practices with regard to the interpretation and application of standards under IFRS, the outcome of pending and future litigation, the success of future acquisitions and other strategic transactions and the impact of competition - a number of which factors are beyond the Group's control. As a result, the Group's actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in the Group's forward-looking statements.

Any forward-looking statements made herein speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by the UK Financial Services Authority, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, Barclays expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this announcement to reflect any change in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
