PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As discussed in the Company's current report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 9, 2006, the Company's notification of late filing on Form 12b-25 dated August 10, 2006 and the Company's current report on Form 8-K furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 2, 2006, a review of the Company's historical stock option granting practices and related tax and accounting matters is ongoing. The Company expects to record additional non-cash charges for stock based compensation expense, but is unable at this time to determine the amount of such charges or the resulting tax and accounting impact of these actions or which periods would require restatement, if any. The Company is also evaluating its internal control over financial reporting and its disclosure controls and procedures in connection with this review. Based on the status of the review to date, the Company does not believe that it will be able to report full results for the third quarter of 2006 and file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for such quarter by the extended filing deadline.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes  No  (See explanation below)
If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the ongoing nature of the review described in Part III above and the current uncertainty as to what the results of the review will be, the Company is not yet in a position to determine whether any restatement of previously issued financial statements will be necessary.
