(b) Retirement of Officer

On April 20, 2007, George T. Singley, III, Group President of SAIC, Inc., announced his upcoming retirement from the company. Mr. Singley, who is currently President of the company's Engineering, Training and Logistics Group, will resign his positions as Group President and Executive Vice President effective June 2, 2007, after which he will continue to provide consulting services to the company through April 2008. Larry J. Peck, who is currently President of the company's Enterprise and Infrastructure Solutions Group, will also resign as a Group President effective June 2, 2007, after which he will continue to serve as an Executive Vice President of the company and assist with business development and operational improvements.

In connection with these resignations, the company announced certain changes in its group and business unit organizational structure. Charles F. Koontz will become President of the newly-named IT and Network Solutions Group, while Joseph W. Craver, III will become President of the Infrastructure and Product Solutions Group. Deborah H. Alderson will continue as President of the Defense Solutions Group and Lawrence B. Prior will continue as the President of the Intelligence, Security, and Technology Group.

(d) Appointment of Director

On April 19, 2007, Dr. Miriam (Mim) John was appointed as a director of SAIC, Inc. to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors, effective June 8, 2007.

Dr. John retired from Sandia National Laboratories in September 2006, after having served as Vice President of Sandia's California Division from April 1999 to September 2006. She previously served in a number of managerial and technical roles for Sandia from 1982 to 1999. Dr. John is a member of the Department of Defense's Defense Science Board and Threat Reduction Advisory Committee, and the National Research Council's Naval Studies Board.

In connection with her election, Dr. John will be entitled to receive the standard remuneration provided to the company's non-management directors. This remuneration includes (i) an annual cash retainer in the amount of $50,000, (ii) fees of $1,500 for each meeting of the Board that she attends and $2,000 for each meeting of any committee of which she is a member that she attends, (iii) an inducement stock grant consisting of 3,000 shares of the company's class A preferred stock and (iv) an annual grant of options and shares of restricted stock. Dr. John has not yet been appointed to any committees of the Board of Directors. There are no related party transactions between Dr. John and the company.
