Our Business

The Company

NCM, Inc., a Delaware corporation organized on October 5, 2006, is a holding company that manages its consolidated subsidiary NCM LLC, but has no business operations or material assets other than its cash and ownership interest of approximately 38.3% of the common membership units in NCM LLC as of July 1, 2010. NCM LLC's founding members, AMC, Cinemark and Regal, the three largest motion picture exhibition companies in the U.S., hold the remaining 61.7% of NCM LLC's common membership units. NCM, Inc.'s primary source of cash flow from operations is distributions from NCM LLC pursuant to the NCM LLC operating agreement. NCM, Inc. also receives management fees pursuant to a management services agreement with NCM LLC in exchange for providing specific management services to NCM LLC.

NCM LLC has long-term ESAs with NCM LLC's founding members and multi-year agreements with several other theatre operators whom we refer to as network affiliates. The ESAs and network affiliate agreements grant NCM LLC exclusive rights in their theatres, subject to limited exceptions, to sell advertising and to sell and distribute entertainment programming and meeting and communication services through our Fathom Events division.

Overview of the Business

We operate the largest digital in-theatre network in North America. We distribute advertising and Fathom business and consumer events across our digital content network (DCN) and live digital broadcast network (DBN) utilizing our proprietary digital content software (DCS). We currently derive revenue principally from the following activities:

Advertising: We develop, produce, sell and distribute several versions of a branded, on-screen pre-feature entertainment and advertising program called FirstLook and advertising programming on our lobby entertainment network (LEN). We also offer other forms of advertising and promotions in theatre lobbies. For the six months ended July 1, 2010, advertising accounted for 86% of our total revenue.

Fathom Events: We distribute entertainment programming through our Fathom Consumer division and multi-site business communication and marketing content through our Fathom Business division to theatres across our DCN (for pre-recorded events) and DBN (for both live and pre-recorded events). Our Fathom Business division also facilitates business meetings, church services, and corporate marketing/communication events in individual movie theatres throughout our theatre network. For the six months ended July 1, 2010, Fathom Events accounted for 14% of our total revenue.

We believe that the reach, scope and digital delivery capability of our digital network provide an effective platform for national and local advertisers to reach a large, young and affluent audience on a highly-targeted, engaging and measurable basis. As of July 1, 2010, our advertising network is located in 47 states and the District of Columbia and covers all of the top 25, as well as 49 of the top 50 and 99 of the top 100, Designated Market Areas[®], or DMAs[®], and 172 DMAs[®] in total. As of July 1, 2010, our Fathom Events network is located in 49 states and the District of Columbia and covers 49 of the top 50 DMAs[®] and 154 DMAs[®] in total. During 2009, over 680 million patrons attended movies shown in theatres currently included in our advertising network. As of July 1, 2010, we had approximately 17,100 screens in our advertising network, 15,600 of which are digital, and 546 locations in our Fathom DBN. Approximately 1,260 additional screens will be added to our advertising network in the second half of 2010 and in 2011, upon the expiration of existing advertising agreements, based on signed contracts with Regal's Consolidated Theatres, Great Escape Theatres and certain theatres operated by Rave Motion Pictures.

We expect our digital network to continue to expand through the addition of new theatres pursuant to agreements with additional network affiliates and net increases in the number of screens operated by the founding members of NCM LLC pursuant to the common unit adjustment agreement. The common unit adjustment agreement provides a mechanism for adjusting common membership units held by the founding members, based on increases or decreases in the number of screens operated by each founding member. Increases in the number of screens are included in the unit adjustment calculation if arising from acquisition of a theatre or opening of a newly constructed theatre, unless an acquired theatre is subject to an agreement with an alternative cinema advertising provider, in which case run out payments will be made to NCM LLC by the founding member acquiring the theatre pursuant to its ESA until such third party cinema advertising agreement expires and the theatre is added to NCM's network. Decreases in the number of screens are included in the unit adjustment calculation if arising from disposition of a theatre, unless the purchaser or sublessee enters into an agreement with NCM LLC similar to the ESA, the theatre is closed at the end of its lease term or a non-digitized theatre is closed within three years of the end of its lease term.

You should consider carefully the risks incorporated by reference in this prospectus and in the applicable prospectus supplement, including the risks described under the captions "Risks Related to our Business and Industry" and "Risks Related to Our Corporate Structure," included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and other information included and incorporated by reference into this document, including our historical financial statements and related notes, in evaluating an investment in our Common Stock. The information incorporated by reference in this prospectus and in the applicable prospectus supplement may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future. For a description of these reports and documents, and information about where you can find them, see the sections entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference" in this prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described in this prospectus, the applicable prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties that we do not presently know about or that we currently believe are not material may also adversely affect our business. If any of the risks and uncertainties described in this prospectus, the applicable prospectus supplement or the documents incorporated by reference herein actually occur, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected in a material way. This could cause the trading price of our Common Stock to decline, perhaps significantly, and you may lose part or all of your investment.

Risks Related to This Offering

The substantial number of shares that are eligible for sale could cause the market price for our Common Stock to decline or make it difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future

We cannot predict the effect, if any, that market sales of shares of Common Stock or the availability of shares of Common Stock for sale will have on the market price of our Common Stock from time to time. Sales of substantial amounts of shares of our Common Stock in the public market, or the perception that those sales will occur, could cause the market price of our Common Stock to decline or make future offerings of our equity securities more difficult.

The 42,302,788 shares of Common Stock outstanding at July 1, 2010 are freely tradable, except for 223,895 shares held by our management and independent directors. In addition, the founding members may receive 68,158,186 shares of Common Stock, which are being registered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, upon redemption of their outstanding common membership units of NCM LLC. We have registered for resale by our founding members shares of NCM, Inc. Common Stock equal to all of the current outstanding common membership units as required by the registration rights agreement executed on the date of the IPO.

Additionally, as of July 1, 2010, 861,739 shares of non-vested restricted stock are outstanding and 4,011,187 shares of our Common Stock will be issuable upon exercise of stock options that vest through 2013. As of July 1, 2010, 1,291,164 stock options have vested and are exercisable at an average exercise price of $15.89 per share. Once the options and restricted stock become vested and/or exercisable, as applicable, to the extent they are not held by one of our affiliates, the shares acquired upon vesting or exercise are freely tradable.

Table of Contents

Our stock price may be volatile

Before our IPO in February 2007, there was no public market for our Common Stock, and an active trading market for our Common Stock may not continue. The stock market in general has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations over the last several months. These broad market fluctuations or actions of individual holders of our stock may adversely affect the market price of our Common Stock, regardless of our actual operating performance. Our stock price may fluctuate or decline due to a variety of factors, including:

actual or anticipated quarterly fluctuations in our operating results;

changes in expectations of future financial performance or changes in estimates of securities analysts;

changes in the market valuations of other companies;

announcements relating to actions of other media companies, strategic relationships, acquisitions or industry consolidation;

terrorist acts or wars; and general economic, market and political conditions not related to our business.

Our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those indicated in these statements as a result of certain factors as more fully discussed under "Risk Factors" above. Our historical financial data discussed prior to the completion of our IPO reflects the historical results of operations and financial position of NCM LLC. Accordingly, historical financial data does not give effect to the reorganization and the NCM LLC senior secured credit facility completed as part of the NCM, Inc. IPO.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Each of the selling stockholders is a founding member of NCM LLC, our operating company subsidiary. Regal CineMedia Holdings, LLC, or RCM, and an entity now merged into American Multi-Cinema, Inc., or AMCI, formed NCM LLC in March 29, 2005. On July 15, 2005, Cinemark Media, Inc., or Cinemark Media, joined NCM LLC as the third founding member. In February 2007, as part of a reorganization related to our IPO, NCM LLC issued an aggregate of 51,850,951 common membership units to the selling stockholders. Pursuant to the common unit adjustment agreement among us, NCM LLC and the founding members or certain of their affiliates, the founding members may be issued additional common membership units or surrender common membership units from time to time, depending on changes in the numbers of movie theatre screens that participate in our advertising services. As of the date of this prospectus, an aggregate of 16,307,235 additional common membership units have been issued to the founding members since our IPO pursuant to these provisions.

The common membership units were issued as restricted securities under the Securities Act and are subject to certain restrictions on transfer under NCM LLC's operating agreement. The common membership units can be exchanged for our Common Stock on a one-to-one basis, except if we exercise our option to exchange the common membership units for cash. This prospectus covers the offer and sale or other disposition by the selling stockholders of 68,158,186 shares of Common Stock issuable to the selling stockholders upon exchange of the common membership units.

We have registered the above-referenced shares to permit each of the selling stockholders and their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest that, after the date of this prospectus, receive shares of Common Stock issued upon exchange of their common membership units to resell or otherwise dispose of the shares in the manner contemplated under the Plan of Distribution.

The selling stockholders may exchange some, all or none of their common membership units for shares of Common Stock (subject to our option to exchange units for cash), and they may sell some, all or none of their shares of Common Stock. The shares of Common Stock offered by this prospectus may be offered from time to time by the selling stockholders. As part of the original agreement with the selling stockholders at the time of the IPO, we have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to keep a registration statement effective for each selling stockholder until the earlier of (a) such time as all the shares owned by the selling stockholder as a consequence of their exchange and conversion of the common membership units have been disposed of by the selling stockholder or (b) all such shares may be sold by the selling stockholder in reliance on Rule 144 without restriction. We have registered for resale by the founding members Common Stock equal to all of the current outstanding common membership units as required by the registration rights agreement executed at the date of the IPO.

Since the formation of NCM LLC, AMCI and affiliates of RCM and Cinemark Media have been parties to exhibitor services agreements (as amended from time to time) with NCM LLC, which govern the terms by which NCM LLC provides advertising, digital programming and meeting events in the theatres of the selling stockholders and their affiliates. We and the selling stockholders are also party to a software license agreement related to our provision of services under the exhibitor services agreements. Pursuant to a director designation agreement dated February 13, 2007, between us and the selling stockholders, so long as a selling stockholder owns at least 5% of NCM LLC's issued and outstanding common membership units, such selling stockholder will have the right to designate a total of two nominees to our ten-member board of directors, who are voted upon by our stockholders. If a selling stockholder's director designee is not elected, then NCM LLC's operating agreement provides that each of the selling stockholders with at least 5% of NCM LLC's issued and outstanding common membership units has approval rights for certain NCM LLC actions. The operating agreement also provides for mandatory distributions from NCM LLC to its members (the selling stockholders and us). Additionally, for as long as a selling stockholder beneficially owns at least 5% of NCM LLC's issued and outstanding common membership units, our certificate of incorporation provides that supermajority voting is required on certain of our board actions and actions we, in our capacity as sole manager of NCM LLC, may authorize NCM LLC to take. A tax receivable agreement between us and the selling stockholders provides for our payment of certain tax savings to the selling stockholders. We are also party to a joint defense agreement with the selling stockholders, as well as a registration rights agreement, which pertains to the registration of shares issuable in exchange for NCM LLC common membership units, as contemplated in this prospectus.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth the name of each selling stockholder, the number of shares of our Common Stock beneficially owned (through redemption rights associated with the common membership units) by each selling stockholder, the number of shares that may be offered under this prospectus and the number of shares of our Common Stock to be owned by each selling stockholder after this offering is completed. The number of shares in the column "Number of Shares Subject to this Registration Statement" represents all of the shares that a selling stockholder may offer under this prospectus. Information regarding any position, office or other material relationship which any selling stockholder has had with us within the past three years is described above. For additional information regarding relationships between us and the selling stockholders, see "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" in our Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the SEC on March 18, 2010, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

As of the date of this prospectus, the selling stockholders do not hold any shares of our Common Stock, but rather hold common membership units in NCM LLC. Under the limited liability company agreement for NCM LLC, the selling stockholders have the right to redeem their membership units for, at our election, cash or Common Stock.

Beneficial ownership of a security is determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC. Under these rules, a person is deemed to beneficially own a share of our Common Stock if that person has or shares voting power or investment power with respect to that share, or has the right to acquire beneficial ownership of that share within 60 days, including through the exercise of any option or other right or the conversion of any other security. Shares issuable under stock options and warrants not subject to this offering are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of the person holding options or warrants but are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person. As of August 6, 2010, the percentage of beneficial ownership for the following table is based upon 42,302,788 shares of our Common Stock (excluding unvested restricted stock) outstanding of NCM, Inc. and 110,460,974 common membership units of NCM LLC outstanding, of which 42,302,788 are owned by NCM, Inc.

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales effected after the date the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC;

any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus. The selling stockholders are not obligated to, and there is no assurance that the selling stockholders will, sell all or any of the shares we are registering. The selling stockholders may transfer, devise or gift such shares by other means not described in this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of our shares, the selling stockholders may sell the shares directly or through broker-dealers acting as a principal or agent, or pursuant to a distribution by one or more underwriters on a firm commitment or best efforts basis. The selling stockholders may also enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Common Stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). The selling stockholders, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the sale of the Common Stock may be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of the shares may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Selling stockholders who are underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

The aggregate proceeds to each selling stockholder from the sale of the Common Stock offered by them will be the purchase price of the Common Stock less discounts or commissions, if any. Each of the selling stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of Common Stock to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling stockholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved. Any profits on the resale of shares by a broker-dealer acting as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by a selling stockholder. The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares if liabilities are imposed on that person under the Securities Act.

Under the registration agreement, we are required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares. We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act. The selling stockholders have severally agreed to indemnify us against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

The selling stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of any of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares from time to time under this prospectus as it may be supplemented from time to time, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus.

To the extent required, the shares to be sold, the names of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the Common Stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the Common Stock may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the founding members and their affiliates. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the selling stockholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling stockholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We have agreed with the selling stockholders to use reasonable best efforts to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus constitutes a part effective until the earlier of (1) such time as all of the shares covered by this prospectus have been disposed of pursuant to and in accordance with the registration statement or (2) the date on which the shares may be sold pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without restriction.
