PVR AND PVG ANNOUNCE RECOMMENDATIONS FROM ADDITIONAL

PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS IN SUPPORT OF PVG S MERGER WITH PVR

AND ANNOUNCE SETTLEMENT OF MERGER- RELATED LITIGATION

RADNOR, PA February 2, 2011 . . . Penn Virginia Resource Partners, L.P. (NYSE: PVR) and Penn Virginia GP Holdings, L.P. (NYSE: PVG) today announced that additional independent proxy advisory firms, Glass Lewis & Co. (Glass Lewis) and Egan-Jones Proxy Services (Egan-Jones) recommended that PVR and PVG unitholders vote FOR the proposals to adopt the merger agreement at each partnership s special meeting of unitholders to be held on February 16, 2011 and FOR the other merger-related proposals contained in the partnerships joint proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). As previously announced, leading independent proxy advisory firm Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) has also recommended that PVR and PVG unitholders vote FOR the proposals to adopt the merger agreement and FOR the other merger-related proposals. As also previously announced, under the terms of the merger agreement, PVG unitholders will receive 0.98 PVR limited partnership units in exchange for each PVG limited partnership unit owned at closing. The merger transaction would be completed with 100 percent equity consideration and would result in PVR owning its general partner, the cancellation of PVG s incentive distribution rights and the cancellation of the PVR limited partnership units owned by PVG.

We are pleased that Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones, leading independent proxy advisory firms, also support the merger, said the partnerships Chief Executive Officer, William H. Shea, Jr. Their positive recommendations reinforce the belief of the boards of the general partners of PVR and PVG that the merger offers significant strategic benefits to the unitholders of both PVR and PVG. We look forward to completing this transaction and we urge PVR and PVG unitholders to follow the recommendations of ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones and to vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

PVR and PVG also announced that they have entered into a proposed settlement of the pending PVG unitholder litigation concerning the merger transaction. The settlement is subject to court approval. Under the terms of the proposed settlement, PVG and PVR will file a supplemental joint proxy statement which contains several additional disclosures concerning the merger transaction. There will be no changes to the merger agreement previously executed by PVG, PVR and certain of their affiliates as a result of the proposed settlement.

Although we believe the claims in these lawsuits are wholly without merit, we feel this settlement will eliminate the uncertainty, distraction, burden and expense of continued litigation and will permit the merger to proceed without possible delays from litigation, said Mr. Shea.

PVR's Special Meeting of the Unitholders will be convened as scheduled at 10 a.m. Eastern Time on Wednesday, February 16, 2011, at The Villanova University Conference Center, 601 County Line Road, Radnor, Pennsylvania 19087. PVR unitholders of record at the close of business on December 20, 2010, are entitled to receive notice and to vote at the special meeting. The board of directors of PVR's general partner recommends unitholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement today by telephone, by Internet, or by signing, dating and returning PVR's white proxy card. PVR unitholders should note that their vote on the merger proposal is very important and a failure to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

PVG's Special Meeting of the Unitholders will be convened as scheduled at 11 a.m. Eastern Time on Wednesday, February 16, 2011, at The Villanova University Conference Center, 601 County Line Road, Radnor, Pennsylvania 19087. PVG unitholders of record at the close of business on December 20, 2010, are entitled to receive notice and to vote at the special meeting. The board of directors of PVG's general partner recommends unitholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement today by telephone, by Internet, or by signing, dating and returning PVG's white proxy card. PVG unitholders should note that their vote on the merger proposal is very important and a failure to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

PVR and PVG unitholders are encouraged to read the partnerships' definitive proxy materials in their entirety as they provide, among other things, a detailed discussion of the process that led to the proposed merger and the reasons behind the boards' recommendation that unitholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

PVR or PVG unitholders who have questions about the merger proposal or who need help voting their units should contact our proxy solicitation agent, Morrow & Co., LLC, at 800-573-4370 (banks and brokers call: 203-658-9400).

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements by PVR and PVG contained herein that are not descriptions of historical facts are forward-looking statements by PVR and PVG as defined by federal law. Because such statements, including those relating to projections of expected dilution and accretion to distributable cash flow as a result of the merger, and our ability to complete our previously announced merger include risks, uncertainties and contingencies, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and contingencies are discussed in more detail in PVR's and PVG's press releases and public periodic filings with the SEC including PVR and PVG's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and most recent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Many of the factors that will determine PVR's and PVG's future results are beyond the ability of management to control or predict. Readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect management's views only as of the date hereof. PVR and PVG undertake no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements, or to make any other forward-looking statements, whether as the result of new information, future events or otherwise.
