Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 26, 2013, Ashland Inc. (the Company) closed its previously announced offering (the Notes Offering) of $600 million aggregate principal amount of its 3.000% senior notes due 2016 (the 2016 Notes), $700 million aggregate principal amount of its 3.875% senior notes due 2018 (the 2018 Notes), $650 million aggregate principal amount of additional 4.750% senior notes due 2022 (the New 2022 Notes) and $350 million aggregate principal amount of its 6.875% senior notes due 2043 (the 2043 Notes and, together with the 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the New 2022 Notes, the Notes). Each of the 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the 2043 Notes were sold at a price to investors of 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the applicable series. The New 2022 Notes were sold at a price to investors of 99.059% of the aggregate principal amount of the New 2022 Notes, representing a yield to maturity of 4.875%. The Notes are unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Company.

The Notes were offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

On February 26, 2013, the Company and the initial purchasers of the Notes entered into two registration rights agreements, one in respect of the 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the 2043 Notes (the New Notes Registration Rights Agreement) and the other in respect of the New 2022 Notes (the New 2022 Notes Registration Rights Agreement and, each, a Registration Rights Agreement). Pursuant to each Registration Rights Agreement, the Company agreed, among other things, and subject to certain restrictions and conditions, to file a registration statement under the Securities Act to permit either the exchange of the applicable series of the Notes for registered notes having terms substantially identical to those of such series of the Notes (except that the registered notes will not be subject to restrictions on ownership and transfer) or, in the alternative, the registered resale of the applicable series of the Notes.

The New Notes Registration Rights Agreement is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference. The description of the material terms of the New Notes Registration Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibit.

The New 2022 Notes Registration Rights Agreement is filed as Exhibit 4.2 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference. The description of the material terms of the New 2022 Notes Registration Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibit.

The information set forth under Item 2.03 of this Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the 2043 Notes were each issued as a separate series of notes under the Indenture (the New Base Indenture) dated February 26, 2013, between the Company and U.S Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated February 26, 2013, between the Company and the Trustee (the New Supplemental Indenture and, together with the New Base Indenture, the New Indenture). The New Indenture contains customary events of default for similar debt securities, which if triggered may accelerate payment of principal, premium, if any, and accrued but unpaid interest on all the Notes issued thereunder. Such events of default include non-payment of principal and interest, non-performance of covenants and obligations, default on other material debt, and bankruptcy or insolvency. If a change of control repurchase event as described in the New Indenture occurs, the Company may be required to offer to purchase the 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the 2043 Notes from the holders thereof. The Notes issued under the New Indenture are not otherwise required to be repaid prior to maturity, although they may be redeemed at the option of the Company at any time prior to their maturity in the manner specified in the New Indenture.

The New 2022 Notes were issued as additional notes under the Indenture (the Existing 2022 Notes Indenture ) dated as of August 7, 2012, between the Company and the Trustee, as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated February 26, 2013, between the Company and the Trustee (the 2022 Notes Supplemental Indenture and, together with the Existing 2022 Notes Indenture, the 2022 Notes Indenture ). The Company had previously issued $500 million aggregate principal amount of 4.750% senior notes due 2022 (the Existing 2022 Notes and, together with the New 2022 Notes, the 2022 Notes ) under the Existing 2022 Notes Indenture. The New 2022 Notes and the Existing 2022 Notes are equal in right of payment, vote together with, and form a single series of debt securities under, the 2022 Notes Indenture. The 2022 Notes Indenture contains customary events of default for similar debt securities, which if triggered may accelerate payment of principal, premium, if any, and accrued but unpaid interest on all the 2022 Notes. Such events of default include non-payment of principal and interest, non-performance of covenants and obligations, default on other material debt, and bankruptcy or insolvency. If a change of control repurchase event as described in the 2022 Notes Indenture occurs, we may be required to offer to purchase the 2022 Notes from the holders thereof. The New 2022 Notes are not otherwise required to be repaid prior to maturity, although they may be redeemed at the option of the Company at any time prior to their maturity in the manner specified in the 2022 Notes Indenture.

The New Base Indenture and the New Supplemental Indenture are filed as Exhibit 4.3 and Exhibit 4.4 to this Form 8-K, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. The description of the material terms of the New Base Indenture, the New Supplemental Indenture and the 2016 Notes, the 2018 Notes and the 2043 Notes is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibits.

The Existing 2022 Notes Indenture and the 2022 Notes Supplemental Indenture are filed as Exhibit 4.5 and Exhibit 4.6 to this Form 8-K, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. The description of the material terms of the Existing 2022 Notes Indenture, the 2022 Notes Supplemental Indenture and the 2022 Notes is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibits.

The information regarding the Notes Offering set forth in Item 1.01 of this Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD.

The Company used the net proceeds of the Notes Offering (after deducting the initial purchasers' discounts and other fees and expenses), together with cash on hand, (i) to prepay $1.21 billion of the term loan A facility under the senior secured credit facility, (ii) to pay off in full the remaining $1.03 billion outstanding under the term loan B facility under the senior secured credit facility and (iii) to pay $52 million to terminate certain interest rate swaps entered into in connection with the senior secured credit facility. The remaining principal amount outstanding under the Company's term loan A facility is $200 million. In connection with the completion of the Notes Offering and the foregoing use of proceeds, the Company reaffirms its expectation that fiscal 2013 interest expense under U.S. GAAP will be approximately $180 million, excluding expenses associated with the prepayment of debt and the termination of related interest rate swaps.

On February 26, 2013, the Company issued a news release (the News Release ) relating to the completion of the Notes Offering.

The News Release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
