INFORMATION STATEMENT

TO SHAREHOLDERS OF THE

CHINA DIVIDEND EX-FINANCIALS FUND

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE AVAILABILITY OF THE INFORMATION STATEMENT

April 28, 2014

The Information Statement is available at www.wisdomtree.com

This document is an Information Statement and is being furnished to shareholders of the China Dividend ex-Financials Fund (the Fund), a series of WisdomTree Trust (the Trust), in lieu of a proxy statement pursuant to the terms of an exemptive order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). WisdomTree Asset Management, Inc. (the Adviser) serves as the investment adviser for the Fund. The exemptive order permits the Adviser and the Board of Trustees of the Trust (the Board) to employ unaffiliated sub-advisers, terminate sub-advisers, and modify sub-advisory agreements with unaffiliated sub-advisers without prior approval of the Fund's shareholders.

The Board reviews advisory and sub-advisory agreements annually or as otherwise required under applicable law. In addition, under the exemptive order, if the Adviser and the Board retain a new sub-adviser, the Trust is required to provide an Information Statement to shareholders of the affected portfolios of the Trust explaining the change.

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about April 28, 2014, to the shareholders of the Fund as of April 21, 2014. The Adviser will pay the expenses of preparing this Information Statement. Certain information on the share ownership of the Fund is set forth in Appendix A.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY.

PLEASE DO NOT SEND US A PROXY.

Appointment of Mellon Capital Management Corporation as Sub-Adviser to the China Dividend ex-Financials Fund (the Fund)

At a meeting of the Board held on December 11, 2013 (the Meeting), the trustees of the Trust (each a Trustee), including the Trustees who are not interested persons of the Trust (Independent Trustees), as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), unanimously approved the appointment of Mellon Capital Management Corporation (Mellon Capital) to serve as sub-adviser to the Fund. Mellon Capital replaced Old Mutual Global Index Trackers (Proprietary) Limited (Old Mutual) as the sub-adviser to the Fund.

No officers or Trustees of the Trust are officers, employees, directors, managers or members of Mellon Capital. In addition, since the beginning of the Trust s last fiscal year, no Trustee has had, directly or indirectly, any interest in Mellon Capital, any of its parents or subsidiaries or any subsidiaries of a parent of any such entities, and no Trustee has been a party to a material transaction or material proposed transaction to which Mellon Capital, any of its parents or subsidiaries or any subsidiaries of a parent of any such entities, was or is to be a party.

Considerations by the Board of Trustees

At the Meeting, the Board, including the Independent Trustees, considered the approval of the investment sub-advisory agreement (the Agreement) between the Adviser and Mellon Capital pursuant to which Mellon Capital will coordinate the investment and reinvestment of the Fund s assets. The Agreement replaced the investment sub-advisory agreement between the Adviser and Old Mutual, dated November 20, 2012, with respect to the Fund (the Old Mutual Agreement), which was terminated as of the close of business on January 31, 2014. The Board determined that the change in sub-adviser was in the best interests of Fund shareholders due to, among other matters, the factors set forth below.

In considering whether to approve the Agreement, the Board considered and discussed information and analysis provided by the Adviser. The Board was assisted in its review by independent legal counsel. In considering the approval of the Agreement, the Board considered all factors that it deemed to be relevant, including those discussed below. The Board did not identify any particular factor as controlling, and each Trustee may have attributed different weights to the various factors.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services to be Provided. The Board considered the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by Mellon Capital, recognizing Mellon Capital s operational capabilities and resources. Representatives of the Adviser noted that Mellon Capital currently acts as sub-adviser for the WisdomTree suite of equity strategies with the exception of the Fund, which has used Old Mutual for sub-advisory services since its inception in September 2012. The Board discussed the reasoning for the switch from Old Mutual to Mellon Capital with representatives of the Adviser, noting Mellon Capital s expertise in the emerging markets space and the potential operational risks of an additional sub-adviser in light of the planned service provider conversion from Bank of New York Mellon to State Street Bank and Trust Company. Additionally, the Board noted that the Fund invests in Hong Kong domiciled securities, which are also held in the existing WisdomTree strategies sub-advised by Mellon Capital.

Comparative Analysis of the Fund's Performance, Advisory Fees and Fund Expenses. The Adviser noted that while Old Mutual's sub-advisory mandate has been satisfactory, Mellon Capital has proven itself to be an effective sub-adviser, particularly in the emerging markets equity space, currently operating six of the emerging markets equity strategies in the WisdomTree suite. The Board also noted the Adviser's statement that it did not intend to retain Old Mutual as a sub-adviser for future funds. The Board discussed with the Adviser's representatives the Mellon Capital portfolio management personnel that would be responsible for managing the Fund's assets. The Board noted that because of the current asset level of the funds sub-advised by Mellon Capital, the fee rate to be paid to Mellon Capital will be lower than the fee paid to Old Mutual. The Board noted that Mellon Capital's fees will be paid by the Adviser (out of its fees paid by the Fund) and not the Fund. The Board also considered the fee to be paid to Mellon Capital in relation to the fees paid to the Adviser by the Fund and the respective services to be provided. The Board was satisfied that the retention of Mellon Capital as sub-adviser for the Fund was proposed for reasons consistent with the best interest of the Fund and its shareholders.

Costs of Services to be Provided, Profitability and Economies of Scale. The Board considered potential benefits to Mellon Capital from acting as sub-investment adviser to the Fund, including the potential fall-out benefits to Mellon Capital and its affiliates (i.e., ancillary benefits that may be realized by Mellon Capital and its affiliates from its role with the Fund, such as other service contracts).

Conclusion. After consideration of the factors discussed above, the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, determined that the approval of the Agreement was in the best interest of the Fund and approved the Agreement for the Fund.

Information Concerning the Adviser

The Adviser, located at 245 Park Avenue, 35th Floor, New York, New York 10167, serves as investment adviser to the Fund. The Adviser has served as the investment adviser for the Fund since its inception. The Adviser oversees Mellon Capital to ensure its compliance with the investment policies and guidelines of the Fund and monitors Mellon Capital's adherence to its investment style. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014, the Fund paid the Adviser $159,501, or 0.63% of the Fund's average annual net assets, for investment management services provided to the Fund. The terms of the Fund's investment advisory agreement with the Adviser are unaffected by the approval of the Agreement. Thus, if the Agreement had been in place during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014, the Fund would have paid the Adviser the exact same amount in fees.

Terms of the Sub-Advisory Agreement

The mandate for Mellon Capital to become sub-adviser to the Fund was added by way of amendment dated January 23, 2014, effective February 1, 2014 with respect to the Fund, to the existing sub-advisory agreement between the Adviser and Mellon Capital dated January 1, 2013. The Agreement, as amended with respect to the Fund, will continue in effect for two years from its effective date, unless sooner terminated. The Agreement, as amended with respect to the Fund, will continue in force from year to year thereafter so long as it is specifically approved at least annually in the manner required by the 1940 Act.

The Agreement may be terminated, without payment of any penalty, (i) by a vote of a majority of the Board or by a vote of a majority of outstanding voting securities of the Fund, as defined by the 1940 Act, on not more than 60 days prior written notice to the Adviser and Mellon Capital; (ii) by the Adviser or Mellon Capital on at least 120 days written notice to the other party and; (iii) upon written notice by the Adviser or Mellon Capital to the other party that the other party is in material breach of the Agreement, unless the other party in material breach of the Agreement cures such breach to the reasonable satisfaction of the party alleging the breach within thirty (30) days after written notice.

The Agreement will automatically terminate, without the payment of any penalty, in the event of its assignment (as defined in the 1940 Act) or in the event that the investment advisory agreement between the Adviser and the Trust, with respect to the Fund, is assigned or terminated for any other reason.

Mellon Capital is entitled to an annual fee for its investment sub-advisory services to the Fund. All sub-advisory fees are paid by the Adviser and not the Fund. Because the Adviser pays Mellon Capital out of its own fees received from the Fund, there is no duplication of advisory fees paid. The Adviser receives an annual fee of 0.63% of the Fund's average daily net assets. There will be no increase in advisory fees to the Fund and its shareholders in connection with the appointment of Mellon Capital as sub-adviser to the Fund.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is on file with the SEC and is available: (1) in person at the SEC's Public Reference Room in Washington, D.C. (upon payment of any applicable fees); (2) by mail (Public Reference Section, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, DC 20549-1520) or email (publicinfo@sec.gov) (upon payment of any applicable fees); or (3) on the EDGAR Database on the SEC's internet website (www.sec.gov).
