Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On May 21, 2014, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Brown-Forman Corporation (the Company) approved certain amendments to the Company s By-laws, as previously amended on May 28, 2009 (the By-Laws). The amendments are reflected in the Amended and Restated By-laws (the Restated By-laws) attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2.

The Restated By-Laws became effective immediately upon approval and provide for, among other things, the designation of the state courts of the State of Delaware as the exclusive forum for certain stockholder litigation (such as derivative claims, breach of fiduciary duty claims, claims pursuant to the Delaware General Corporate Law, the Company s Certificate of Incorporation, or Restated By-laws and claims governed by the internal affairs doctrine), unless the Company otherwise consents to another jurisdiction; the deletion of the Company s emergency by-laws; an increase (from one-third to a majority) in the number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum for Board meetings; an authorization permitting the Company to provide notice of stockholder meetings via electronic transmission; an authorization permitting the Board to act by written consent via electronic transmission; an increase in the maximum notice period for stockholder meetings from 50 to 60 days preceding the date of the meeting; an increase from 40 to 60 days in the time prior to any meeting, distribution, payment or allotment of rights for which the record date may be set by the Board; a clarification of the limitations on Executive Committee action; the creation of the office of Presiding Chairman of the Board; and an update of the notice procedures for Board meetings to provide for shorter notice periods where such notice is delivered by overnight mail, hand delivery, telephone or electronic transmission. In addition, the Restated By-laws include certain non-substantive clarifying changes.

The foregoing description is a summary of the Restated By-laws and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 3.2, which is incorporated herein by reference.
