Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to be able to share some very exciting and positive news for AXIS: this evening we are announcing that we have signed a definitive amalgamation agreement with PartnerRe Ltd., creating a broadly diversified global specialty insurance and reinsurance company with expanded market presence, gross premiums above $10 billion, and total capitalization above $14 billion.

This transaction is the outgrowth of many months of strategic planning and careful review by our Executive Committee and board of directors. We believe this merger of equals with PartnerRe Ltd. represents a uniquely compelling opportunity for both of our companies. The transaction will leverage the complementary strengths of both AXIS and PartnerRe Ltd. to create an organization with the size and breadth to enhance product and service offerings, maximize growth opportunities, optimize portfolios, and deliver both economies of scale and capital efficiencies.

The new combined company will have significant scale and industry-leading capabilities across a broad range of business lines. The merger of equals will elevate us to become a top five global P&C reinsurer and leading broker-based reinsurer, while also better supporting meaningful growth opportunities in insurance and A&H operations. Both our clients and our combined shareholder bases will benefit from greater capital efficiencies, increased strategic flexibility, and a highly achievable integration process across the combined company. Additional details can be found in the attached copy of the joint press release we just issued.

There will no doubt be many questions about how this process will play out in the months and years ahead. With that in mind, we will be holding a virtual town hall meeting open to all AXIS employees at 10:00 am ET tomorrow morning. The live webcast will be accessible by clicking on the following link: <http://services.choruscall.com/links/axs150126-10.html>. Although we won't have all the answers at this early stage, I nonetheless want to take this opportunity to make sure we are all on the same page and to underscore my commitment to ongoing two-way communications.

I understand that this announcement will leave you with many questions. Our leadership team has tried to anticipate many of these questions in advance and we have provided responses in a frequently-asked-question document that may be found on the Knowledge Network. I also want to encourage you to submit additional questions that we may not have covered in this FAQ document in advance of our virtual town hall meeting. We will endeavor to answer as many of them as possible during our time together, and request that you email these additional questions to us by 9:00 am ET on Monday, January 26, using this address: TownHallQuestions@axiscapital.com.

Change can be an unsettling process, and big changes all the more so. But change is also the vital current that animates and carries us through life. This merger provides us with a unique opportunity to create a leading global insurer and reinsurer. I believe our best work and greatest successes come when we embrace new opportunities and challenges with open eyes and I am confident that our merger with PartnerRe Ltd. will pose an opportunity for all of us to do precisely that by taking our collective capabilities and performance to the next level on behalf of our clients and shareholders. I am greatly reassured and gratified to have reached this juncture with the best team in the industry at my side.

I look forward to speaking with you all soon.

With best regards,

Albert
