SEC File No. of Depomed, Inc.: 001-13111

This Rule 425 filing consists of a press release that contains information regarding Horizon Pharma plc's (Horizon Pharma) solicitation of revocable proxies from Depomed, Inc. (Depomed) shareholders for votes on the proposals at two special meetings of shareholders of Depomed.

Horizon Pharma issued the press release on October 13, 2015.

Horizon Pharma plc Files Preliminary Proxy Materials for Special Meetings

Intends to Solicit Proxies from Depomed Inc. Shareholders for the Removal and Replacement of Depomed's Current Board and the Repeal of a Series of Recent Amendments to Depomed's Bylaws

DUBLIN, IRELAND October 13, 2015 Horizon Pharma plc (NASDAQ: HZNP) (Horizon Pharma), a biopharmaceutical company focused on improving patients' lives by identifying, developing, acquiring and commercializing differentiated and accessible medicines that address unmet medical needs, today announced that it has filed preliminary proxy materials on Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in connection with its solicitation of proxies to vote in favor of proposals at two related special meetings of Depomed, Inc. (Depomed) that Horizon Pharma is currently soliciting consents from Depomed shareholders to call one special meeting to remove all of the current Depomed directors and repeal a series of recent amendments to Depomed's bylaws (the Removal and Bylaw Amendments Special Meeting) and a second special meeting to elect replacement directors (the Election Special Meeting).

If the Removal and Bylaw Amendments Special Meeting and the Election Special Meeting are called, Horizon Pharma intends to provide definitive proxy materials and to solicit revocable proxies from Depomed shareholders for votes on the proposals at the Removal and Bylaw Amendments Special Meeting and the Election Special Meeting.

Since Horizon Pharma made public its offer to acquire Depomed in an all-stock transaction on July 7, 2015, the Depomed board of directors has:

Amended Depomed's bylaws, in Horizon Pharma's view, in order to hinder and delay the calling of any special meeting of shareholders;

Adopted a so-called "poison pill" that makes completing Horizon Pharma's current exchange offer to acquire all of the outstanding Depomed common stock impossible unless the poison pill is withdrawn or invalidated;

Distorted the merits of Horizon Pharma's exchange offer through what Horizon Pharma views as misleading public statements; and

To Horizon Pharma's knowledge, inexplicably instructed Depomed's financial advisors not to engage in constructive dialogue with Horizon Pharma.

At the two related special meetings, should they be held, Depomed shareholders would be permitted to vote in favor of all, some, or none of Horizon Pharma's proposals. Neither the calling of the special meetings nor the approval by Depomed shareholders of any of the proposals at the special meetings would ensure that Depomed pursues or consummates any business combination with Horizon Pharma.

Horizon Pharma's proposed slate of new directors for the Depomed board of directors for election at the Election Special Meeting, if called and held, has not made any commitment to Horizon Pharma if elected other than that each nominee will serve as a director and exercise his or her independent judgment in accordance with his or her fiduciary duties in all matters before the Depomed board of directors and otherwise discharge his or her duties as a director of Depomed consistent with all applicable legal requirements.

Special Note Regarding Litigation

As described in the Exchange Offer Documents, the Special Meetings Solicitation Statement and the Special Meetings Proxy Statements, Horizon Pharma is currently challenging Depomed's bylaw-mandated process for calling a special meeting of shareholders as contrary to California law in a judicial proceeding seeking to protect Depomed shareholders' franchise rights. With that judicial challenge pending, the Special Meetings Solicitation Statement and accompanying WHITE and BLUE proxy cards that have been distributed to Depomed shareholders and the Special Meetings Proxy Statements and accompanying WHITE and BLUE proxy cards that will be distributed to Depomed shareholders reflect Horizon Pharma's good faith effort to nevertheless comply with what we believe is an onerous process for calling a special meeting of shareholders imposed by the Depomed board of directors. The Superior Court of the State of California, County of Santa Clara, where our judicial challenge is pending, has calendared for November 5, 2015 a hearing on a preliminary injunction motion by a subsidiary of Horizon Pharma to enjoin, among other things, the enforcement of Depomed's bylaws that mandate what we believe to be the onerous process for calling a special meeting of shareholders. On that same date, the Court is also scheduled to hold a hearing on a preliminary injunction motion by Depomed for its claims against Horizon Pharma and its subsidiary.
