Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 8, 2015, Univest Corporation of Pennsylvania (Univest) and Fox Chase Bancorp, Inc. (Fox Chase) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Fox Chase will merge with and into Univest, with Univest as the surviving corporation (the Merger). Immediately following the Merger, Fox Chase Bank, the wholly owned banking subsidiary of Fox Chase, will merge with Univest Bank and Trust Co., the wholly owned banking subsidiary of Univest. The Merger Agreement was approved unanimously by the boards of directors of both Univest and Fox Chase.

Upon completion of the Merger, Fox Chase shareholders will have the right to receive for each share of Fox Chase common stock, at their election (subject to the allocation and proration procedures in the Merger Agreement), either (i) 0.9731 shares of common stock, par value $5.00 per share, of Univest (Univest Common Stock) or (ii) $21.00 in cash. The Merger Agreement provides that 60% of the outstanding shares of Fox Chase common stock will be converted into right to receive shares of Univest Common Stock and the remainder of the outstanding shares of Fox Chase common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash.

The Merger Agreement provides that Univest will appoint Thomas M. Petro, President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Fox Chase, and two other current members of Fox Chase's board of directors to the Univest board of directors effective upon closing of the Merger. Univest has agreed to nominate each of such directors for an additional three-year term at the completion of their initial term on the Univest board of directors.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Univest and Fox Chase, and each party has agreed to customary covenants between execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger, including in the case of both Univest and Fox Chase a covenant to convene a meeting of shareholders to consider the Merger Agreement and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its shareholders approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and, in the case of Fox Chase, a covenant, subject to certain exceptions, not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, provide information to third parties or engage in discussions with third parties relating to an alternative acquisition proposal.

Completion of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, among others, (i) the approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of each of Fox Chase and Univest, (ii) the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Univest with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) relating to the Univest common stock to be issued in the Merger, (iii) approval of the listing on The Nasdaq Stock Market of the shares of Univest Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (iv) the absence of any order or other legal restriction prohibiting the closing of the Merger, and (v) receipt of required regulatory approvals without the imposition of any condition or requirement, excluding standard conditions that are normally imposed by the regulatory authorities in bank merger transactions, that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the board of directors of either Univest or Fox Chase, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise or materially impair the value of Fox Chase to Univest or the value of Univest to Fox Chase. Each party's obligations to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including: (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, (iii) the absence of any material adverse effect (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement) with respect to the other party, and (iv) the receipt by each party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Univest and Fox Chase, including, among others, if the Merger has not been completed by December 31, 2016 or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Univest and Fox Chase. Fox Chase may also terminate the Merger Agreement in the event of certain declines in Univest's stock price measured against a bank index over the period from the date of the Merger Agreement to the later to occur of the Fox Chase shareholders' meeting or receipt of the last regulatory approval required for the Merger. Fox Chase and Univest each also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances relating to other permitted acquisition proposals and, in the event of such termination, Fox Chase would be obligated to pay Univest a termination fee of $10.0 million.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties, and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties will not survive completion of the Merger, and were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Uninvest or Fox Chase, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Uninvest, Fox Chase, and their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a joint proxy statement of Uninvest and Fox Chase and a prospectus of Uninvest, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of Uninvest and Fox Chase make with the SEC.
