Carothers has retired from his position as Chief Executive Officer of Union Electric Steel Corporation (UES), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Ampco-Pittsburgh Corporation (the Corporation), effective as of April 30, 2016 (the Retirement Date). Mr. Carothers' retirement concludes a remarkable career of more than 43 years of continuous service with UES, where he served as Chief Executive Officer since January 1998.

(e) In connection with Mr. Carothers' retirement, Mr. Carothers and UES entered into a Retirement and Consulting Agreement, effective as of May 1, 2016 (the Agreement). The Agreement provides for an initial term of thirteen (13) months ending on May 31, 2017.

Additionally, he will be permitted to use his leased company car during the term of the Agreement, and he has the right to purchase it. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Carothers has an obligation to not compete with UES or the Corporation.
