On April 1, 2016, Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon) completed the sale of its local exchange business and related landline activities in California, Florida and Texas (Divested Businesses).

As a convenience to investors who may want to consider the effects of this transaction, we are providing unaudited historical financial and operating information for the past nine quarters reflecting the reclassification of the results associated with the Divested Businesses and other insignificant businesses consisting of our vehicle original equipment manufacturer ( OEM ) and Networkfleet businesses that have been reclassified from the Wireline segment operating results to Corporate and other. The impact of the vehicle OEM and Networkfleet business reclassification was not material to the Wireline segment results of operations.
