Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 17, 2018, The Blackstone Group L.P. posted on its website at ir.blackstone.com certain historical financial information which reflects the adoption of new guidance under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) on revenue recognition and the implementation of a change in accounting principle related to Carried Interest and Incentive Allocations.

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued amended guidance on revenue from contracts with customers. The new guidance was effective for Blackstone beginning on January 1, 2018 and was adopted on a full retrospective basis. Blackstone has concluded that its Management and Advisory Fees and Incentive Fees which are not received as an allocation of its equity investment (Contractual Incentive Fees) are within the scope of the amended revenue recognition guidance. The adoption of the amended guidance did not have a material impact on the recognition of Management and Advisory Fees. For Contractual Incentive Fees, the amended guidance changes the presentation and delays the timing of revenues compared to the prior accounting treatment. These amounts were previously recognized within Realized and Unrealized Performance Fees Incentive Fees in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Under the amended guidance, Contractual Incentive Fees will be recognized separately within Incentive Fees.

Blackstone has concluded that investments made alongside its limited partners in a partnership which entitle Blackstone to a (a) pro-rata allocation, and a (b) disproportionate allocation of the income otherwise allocable to the limited partners (Performance Allocations) represent equity method investments that are not in the scope of the amended revenue recognition guidance. Therefore, effective January 1, 2018, Blackstone implemented a change in accounting principle for the recognition and measurement of Performance Allocations. This accounting change will not change the timing or amount of revenue recognized related to Performance Allocation arrangements. These amounts were previously recognized within Realized and Unrealized Performance Fees Carried Interest and Incentive Fees in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Under the equity method of accounting Blackstone recognizes Performance Allocations within Investment Income along with the allocations proportionate to Blackstone s ownership interests in the Blackstone Funds. Blackstone applied a retrospective application consistent with the requirements for presentation of a change in accounting principle.

The information included in this Current Report on Form 8-K is being furnished under Item 7.01, Regulation FD Disclosure of Form 8-K.
