Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 27, 2009, Raptor Pharmaceuticals Corp., a Delaware corporation (Raptor), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the Merger Agreement) with TorreyPines Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (TorreyPines), and ECP Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of TorreyPines, (Merger Sub), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, TorreyPines will acquire Raptor in a stock-for-stock reverse triangular merger (the Merger). In the Merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Raptor, with Raptor surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of TorreyPines.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, TorreyPines will issue, and holders of Raptor's common stock will receive, shares of common stock of TorreyPines, such that following the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, then current stockholders of Raptor are expected to own approximately 95% of the common stock of the combined company and current TorreyPines stockholders are expected to own approximately 5% of the common stock of the combined company. The Merger is intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as a tax-free reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of Raptor, TorreyPines and Merger Sub, upon consummation of the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each share of Raptor's common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will be canceled, extinguished and automatically converted into the right to receive that number of shares of TorreyPines' common stock as determined pursuant to the exchange ratio described in the Merger Agreement. In addition, TorreyPines will assume options and warrants to purchase shares of Raptor's common stock which will become exercisable for shares of TorreyPines' common stock, adjusted in accordance with the same exchange ratio.

During the period of time between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the effectiveness of the Merger, TorreyPines has agreed to not take certain actions, without the prior written consent of Raptor, with respect to, among other things, its organizational documents, capital stock, certain expenditures, incurrence of debt, sale, lease, exchange or license of certain assets, as well as other matters. Raptor and TorreyPines are prohibited, subject to certain exceptions, from soliciting and negotiating additional offers from third parties to purchase or merge with Raptor or TorreyPines, respectively.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to closing conditions, including among other things, (i) the filing by TorreyPines with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) of a registration statement on Form S-4 with respect to the registration of the shares of TorreyPines' common stock to be issued in the Merger, and a declaration of its effectiveness by the SEC, (ii) approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and Merger by the requisite vote of the stockholders of Raptor, (iii) approval of the issuance of shares of TorreyPines' common stock in connection with the Merger, (iv) approval of the filing of a charter amendment by the requisite vote of TorreyPines' stockholders, and (v) conditional approval for the listing of TorreyPines' common stock to be issued in the Merger on the Nasdaq Capital Market, or, if agreed to by Raptor and TorreyPines, the Nasdaq Global Market. In order to comply with Nasdaq listing requirements, TorreyPines intends to seek stockholder approval to effect a reverse stock split of its common stock in conjunction with the closing of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Raptor and TorreyPines, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Raptor may be required to reimburse TorreyPines for certain of its costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger in an amount not to exceed $250,000 and TorreyPines may be required to reimburse Raptor for certain of its costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger in an amount not to exceed $250,000.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Raptor, TorreyPines or Merger Sub. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Raptor, TorreyPines, or Merger Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Raptor's or TorreyPines' public disclosures.

Voting Agreements

On July 27, 2009, contemporaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain officers and directors of Raptor, who together beneficially own approximately 11% of the outstanding common stock of Raptor, entered into voting agreements with Raptor and TorreyPines in favor of TorreyPines agreeing, among other things, to vote all shares of Raptor's common stock held by them: (a) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement; and (b) generally against any action or agreement submitted to Raptor's stockholders that would result in a breach of Raptor's representations, warranties, covenants or other obligations under the Merger Agreement. On July 27, 2009, contemporaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain officers and directors of TorreyPines, who together beneficially own approximately 1% of the outstanding common stock of TorreyPines, entered into voting agreements on similar terms with Raptor and TorreyPines in favor of Raptor agreeing, among other things, to vote all shares of TorreyPines' common stock held by them: in favor of (a) the issuance of TorreyPines' common stock to be issued in the Merger; (b) the filing of the charter amendment to TorreyPines' certificate of incorporation; (c) the election of the members of Raptor's board of directors to TorreyPines' board of directors; and (d) generally against any action or agreement submitted to TorreyPines' stockholders that would result in a breach of TorreyPines' representations, warranties, covenants or other obligations under the Merger Agreement. The voting agreements terminate upon any termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms and certain other circumstances set forth therein. In connection with the voting agreements, the stockholder parties thereto have also granted an irrevocable proxy to Raptor or TorreyPines, respectively, to vote their shares of TorreyPines' common stock or Raptor's common stock, respectively, in the manner described above.
