Appointment of Ms N V Fakude as Executive Director
Sasol is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Nolitha Fakude as an executive director with effect from 1 October 2005. Ms Fakude will assume responsibility for the world-wide Human Resources and Strategy functions of the Group. She will be a member of both the Sasol Limited Board and the Group Executive Committee and will be appointed as a director of various Group companies and divisions.

Ms Fakude has a highly successful career history in human resources management, transformation and empowerment matters, corporate affairs and general business. She is currently a member of the group executive committee at Nedbank. She is also a director of Woolworths Holdings, Harmony Gold Mining and the non-executive President of the Black Management Forum (BMF).

Newly appointed Chief Executive of Sasol, Pat Davies, says "On behalf of the members of our Board, my colleague Trevor Munday and members of the Group Executive Committee, as well as all the people of Sasol, I welcome Nolitha as an Executive Director. She is ideally equipped and qualified to assume her new responsibilities and we are delighted that she is joining us. We are confident she will have a very positive impact in the portfolios for which she is responsible and that she will play a prominent and influential role in advancing our transformation ambitions at Sasol. We are keenly looking forward to working with her."

Davies added "Further senior appointments of black leaders into the upper structures of Sasol can be anticipated in due course."
