Item 1.01    Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 29, 2014, Wesbanco, Inc. ( WesBanco ) and ESB Financial Corporation ( ESB ) entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) providing for the merger of ESB with and into WesBanco (the Merger ). As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of ESB will cease and WesBanco will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger. The Merger Agreement also provides that, promptly following the completion of the Merger, ESB Bank, a Pennsylvania state-chartered savings bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of ESB, will merge with and into Wesbanco Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of WesBanco (the Bank Merger ), with Wesbanco Bank, Inc. continuing as the surviving bank in the Bank Merger.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, WesBanco will exchange a combination of shares of its common stock and cash for all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of ESB. Shareholders of ESB common stock will be entitled to receive 0.502 (the Exchange Ratio ) of a share of WesBanco common stock, plus cash in the amount of $1.76 per share, for each share of ESB common stock in the exchange. ESB shareholders who receive shares of WesBanco common stock and cash in exchange for their shares of ESB common stock will generally recognize gain, but not loss, equal to the lesser of (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of the amount of cash received plus the fair market value of the WesBanco common stock received in the Merger, over (ii) the shareholder s adjusted tax basis in the shares of ESB common stock exchange in the merger, or (b) the amount of cash received in the merger. Upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding vested and unvested stock option to acquire a share of ESB common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $17.65 over the per share exercise price under such stock option.

ESB and WesBanco have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including covenants made by ESB not to solicit alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, an alternative transaction. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both WesBanco and ESB and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, ESB may be obligated to pay WesBanco a termination fee of $11,354,000.

At the effective time of the Merger, Charlotte A. Zuschlag, ESB s President and Chief Executive Officer will be appointed to the Board of Directors of WesBanco. In addition, prior to the effective time of the Merger ESB will select one additional person to be appointed to the WesBanco Board of Directors at the effective time of the merger, which person must be acceptable to WesBanco.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, but not limited to, the approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of ESB, approval of the issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of WesBanco and the receipt of required regulatory approvals. The transaction is expected to be completed in the first or second quarter of 2015.

As a condition to WesBanco s willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and named executive officers of ESB have entered into substantially identical voting agreements (each, a Voting Agreement ) with WesBanco pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. A form of the Voting Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement.

Cautionary Statement

The Merger Agreement and form of Voting Agreement have been included in this report to provide investors with information regarding their terms. Except for the status of each such agreement as the contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto with respect to the transactions described in this report, the Merger Agreement and form of Voting Agreement are not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties thereto.

The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by the parties to the Merger Agreement are made as of specific dates and are qualified and limited, including by information in disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with the execution of such Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain of the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the parties to the Merger Agreement, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of WesBanco, ESB or any of their respective affiliates.

Forward-Looking Statements

Matters set forth in this filing contain certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, and including statements about the benefits of the proposed Merger between WesBanco and ESB, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those contained or implied by such statements for a variety of factors including: the businesses of WesBanco and ESB may not be integrated successfully or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the expected cost savings and any revenue synergies from the proposed Merger may not be fully realized within the expected timeframes; disruption from the proposed Merger may make it more difficult to maintain relationships with clients, associates, or suppliers; the required governmental approvals of the proposed Merger may not be obtained on the expected terms and schedule; WesBanco's shareholders may not approve the issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the Merger; ESB's shareholders may not approve the proposed Merger; changes in economic conditions; movements in interest rates; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; success and timing of other business strategies; the nature, extent, and timing of governmental actions and reforms; and extended disruption of vital infrastructure; and other factors described in WesBanco's 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K, ESB's 2013 Annual Report on For
