ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In connection with the previously announced corporate restructuring of Triarc Companies, Inc. ("Triarc"), pursuant to which Triarc is in the process of consolidating its corporate operations and headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia and transferring its senior executive responsibilities to the Arby's Restaurant Group, Inc. executive team in Atlanta, as described in more detail below under Item 5.02, on August 10, 2007, Triarc entered into an agreement with its former Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Brian L. Schorr, evidencing the termination of his employment agreement and the cessation of his services as an officer and employee of Triarc as of June 30, 2007.

ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 10, 2007, Triarc entered into an agreement (the "Agreement") with its former Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Brian L. Schorr, evidencing the termination of his employment agreement, dated as of February 24, 2007, as amended (the "Employment Agreement"), as of June 30, 2007 and the cessation of his services as an officer and employee of Triarc as of that date, which services would otherwise have extended until February 2010 (unless further extended). Pursuant to the Agreement, on December 31, 2007, Triarc is to pay to Mr. Schorr a lump sum payment of $5,627,414.76 (less applicable withholding taxes). In addition, between January 1, 2008 and September 30, 2008, Triarc is to pay to Mr. Schorr an additional lump sum payment of $853,150.07 (less applicable withholding taxes); provided, however, that if a change of control of Triarc occurs during such period, this additional payment is to be made on the date of such change of control. Such amounts are subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. Under the Agreement, the amounts payable to Mr. Schorr (prior to any such adjustment) are approximately 12.5% less than the cash payments that would have been payable by Triarc under the pre-existing terms of the Employment Agreement. Except for the foregoing amounts, Mr. Schorr is to accrue no further payments, bonuses, severance or other incentive payments during (or with respect to) the 2007 calendar year. The amounts payable to Mr. Schorr under the Agreement were included in Triarc's results of operations (principally included in facilities relocation and corporate restructuring expense), as reported in its recently filed Form 10-Q for the second fiscal quarter. The Agreement includes a release by Mr. Schorr of any claims he may otherwise have had under the Employment Agreement or any other Triarc compensation plan or arrangement (with certain limited exceptions).

In addition, each outstanding stock option previously granted to Mr. Schorr will remain exercisable until the earlier of (i) one year following the termination of a services to Triarc as a consultant (whether under the terms of the Services Agreement, dated April 30, 2007, between Triarc and Triarc Fund Management, L.P. or otherwise) for reasons other than "cause", (ii) the earlier of the latest date upon which such stock option could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances or the tenth anniversary of the original date of grant and (iii) immediately upon termination of Mr. Schorr's services to Triarc as a consultant for "cause".

Certain provisions of the Employment Agreement will survive the termination of such agreement, including the confidentiality restrictions, the indemnification rights of Mr. Schorr and the provisions relating to certain gross-up payments that are to be made to Mr. Schorr if any of the payments made pursuant to the Agreement are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The above summary of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed as exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
