GOL and Delta TechOps Establish

Long-Term MRO Partnership

Five-year initial agreement will generate maintenance synergies for both companies

São Paulo, February 3, 2011 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (BM&FBovespa: GOLL4 and NYSE: GOL), (S&P/Fitch: BB-/BB-, Moody`s: Ba3), the largest low-cost and low-fare airline in Latin America, and Delta TechOps, the maintenance division of Delta Air Lines (NYSE: DAL), have entered into a strategic MRO (maintenance) partnership agreement. As part of the five-year contract, which includes an additional five-year option, Delta TechOps will provide overhaul service for around 50 percent of GOL`s CFM56-7 engines and maintenance for parts and components on GOL`s fleet of Boeing 737NG aircraft.

Delta TechOps also will provide consulting services related to maintenance workflow planning, materials and facility optimization, and tooling support and will assist GOL with its efforts to secure FAA Part 145 Repair Station Certification. In addition, GOL will assist Delta with some line maintenance services for Delta aircraft with extended ground time in Brazil.

"The men and women in Delta TechOps are the most skilled and knowledgeable in the industry", declared Tony Charaf, CEO of Delta TechOps. "This partnership with GOL gives us a special opportunity to join hands and share our talent and expertise with another airline, while strengthening our ties in the South American market and extending our global MRO footprint."

This partnership aims at further improving GOL`s low cost structure as well as the quality of its state-of-the-art maintenance center located in Brazil. We are proud of working with Delta TechOps", said Constantino Junior, GOL`s Founder and CEO.

About Delta TechOps

Delta TechOps is the largest airline maintenance, repair and overhaul provider in North America, having generated more than US$500 million in revenue in 2009. In addition to providing maintenance and engineering support for Delta's fleet of more than 750 aircraft, Delta TechOps serves more than 150 other aviation and airline customers around the world, specializing in highly-skilled procedures for engines, components, hangars and line maintenance. Delta TechOps employs more than 8,500 maintenance professionals and is one of the world's most experienced providers with more than seventy years of aviation expertise.
